OCCUPY WALL STREET

A report by John S. Torell

November 20, 2011

On September 17, 2011, thousands of people came from out of the shadows and started a massive protest in the heart of New York City. I didn't know where these people came from and the American media didn't shed any light on it. This "occupy" movement has since spread to 900 cities in Europe, Africa, Asia and North America.

The protestors didn't have a solid agenda but seemed to bring up a number of grievances and I did not pay that much attention to it. Living in the Sacramento area, I saw on the local news programs, the hassles of the local police as they tried to disperse the occupiers. There were several things that did not make sense to me:

1. The City Council of Sacramento endorsed the movement, but at the same time declared that they could not occupy a city park during the night hours, and announced a curfew for the park at dark.
2. The protestors ignored the curfew and the Sacramento police were sent in to clear out the tents and enforce the law with many arrests.
3. Jan Scully, the Sacramento county prosecutor, made a public statement that her office would not prosecute the protestors who had been arrested and they were let go. This didn't make sense since Scully is known as a tough prosecutor who seldom lets any arrested person off the hook.
4. This indicated to me that some unknown power was protecting the protest movement and Scully acted against the best interest of the county and her sworn oath to uphold the law.

5. After some seven weeks of protest around the United States, it is obvious that the police departments are being taxed with overtime for the officers and is creating havoc with the strained budgets of every city and county in the country. Millions of dollars are being spent to corral the protestors while the regular law enforcement of our police departments is put on the back burner.

THE LEADERSHIP OF THE OCCUPY WALL STREET MOVEMENT

When I started to investigate who was behind this movement, I was surprised to find another group fomented by the World Government. The leader of this movement is Kalle Lasn, an Estonian born in 1942, who currently resides in Canada, after having lived in Estonia, Germany, Australia and Japan. He is a left-wing journalist who for 20 years has worked in Canada for PBS (Public Broadcasting Service) and the Canadian National Film Board. He is also the co-founder of "Adbusters Magazine," which is geared to disrupt and destroy consumer spending in the world. The agenda of Kalle Lasn is socialism and he has written two books to promote a classic socialistic program. His first book is "Culture Jam" and the second is "Design Anarchy." How could an Estonian born person living in Canada suddenly create a worldwide movement in just a few weeks?

ASSOCIATION OF COMMUNITY ORGANIZATIONS FOR REFORM NOW

The answer to that question is another organization called ACORN which was founded in 1970 by hardcore left-wing socialists Wade Rathke and Gary Delgado. ACORN became an umbrella organization for thousands of local community groups and the official focus was on making housing available for low and moderate income families, neighborhood safety, voter registration, health care and a list of other social issues. At its peak it had more than half a million members with some 1,200 chapters in some 100 cities in the United States, Argentina, Canada, Mexico and Peru.

Basically this was an organization that catered to the Democratic Party in the United States and was active in voter registration to help Barack Obama to be elected president of the United States.

ACORN was secretly videotaped in September of 2009 when an undercover person asked for advice and was told how to hide prostitution activities and to avoid paying taxes. Since this organization received 10% of its budget needs from the Federal Government, it was forced to file for Chapter 7 liquidation on November 2, 2010, and on paper the organization does not exist anymore. But the former leadership had access to names and addresses of people around the United States and this was used to rally former members of ACORN into support of the Occupy Wall Street protest.

When President Barack Obama was asked what he thought about the protest movement, he agreed with their demands for reform and said as the president of the United States, he was not going to enforce any laws that the protesters might break.

It is also noteworthy that a number of labor unions across the United States asked their members to get out in support of the protest movement.

THE SMOKING GUN

Kalle Lasn lied when he publicly stated that he has nothing to do with the Occupy Wall Street movement. On June 9, 2011, he used his Adbusters magazine to issue a call for people to join the movement. "America needs its own Tahrir<sup>1</sup> acampada now more than ever. Can we get 20,000 people to flood into lower Manhattan, set up tents, kitchens, a democratic assembly and occupy Wall Street for a few months? <sup>2</sup> Furthermore, Adbusters says "Now may be the ripest moment we'll ever have to power-shift global capitalism onto a new sustainable path."<sup>3</sup>

Another link leading to Lasn is that he registered the domain name of OccupyWallStreet.org before the protests began.

Since the beginning of the Communist movement in 1848 when Karl Marx published his communist manifesto, the choice operation of communists has been to use all kinds of front organizations. Kalle Lasn is a typical communist operator, and when he started up the Occupy Wall Street movement, there were a number of front organizations listed as sponsors: Occupy Wall Street, U.S. Day Of Rage, NYC General Assembly, Take the Square and Anonymous.

ROSEANNE BARR

For some unknown reason this actress, comedian, producer and writer gave an interview of what she thought about the Occupy Wall Street movement to Russia Today. As the controversial self-proclaimed presidential candidate appeared on the Russia Today television program, Keiser Report, to reveal her solution for dealing with the economic crisis, saying the banks should repay the money with which the U.S. government bailed them out in 2008. Here is what she said about part of her platform as a presidential candidate:

"Part of my platform is, of course, the guilty must be punished and that we no longer let our children see their guilty leaders getting away with murder. 'Because it teaches children, you know, that they don't have to have any morals as long as they have guns and are bullies and I don't think that's a good message.

I do say that I am in favor of the return of the guillotine and that is for the worst of the worst of the guilty. I first would allow the guilty bankers to pay, you know, the ability to pay back anything over $100 million of personal wealth, because I believe in a maximum wage of $100 million. And if they are unable to live on that amount then they should, you know, go [to] the reeducation camps and if that doesn't help, then being beheaded."<sup>4</sup>

The actress-turned-author is one of several celebrities who came out to support the hundreds of protesters camped out in lower Manhattan for the Occupy Wall Street demonstration. Susan Sarandon and Michael Moore also lent their support to the campaigners.

In August, Roseanne Barr announced her candidacy for president under the "Green Tea Party" and said she would also be running for Prime Minister of Israel. On another occasion she made the following statement: "My hope is that gays will be running the world, because then there would be no war. Just a greater emphasis on military apparel."<sup>5</sup> Some day her wish will be fulfilled, when the Antichrist becomes the supreme dictator of the world, because he will be a homosexual and most of his top leaders will also be sexual perverts.

"And the king shall do according to his will; and he shall exalt himself, and magnify himself above every god, and shall speak marvellous things against the God of gods, and shall prosper till the indignation be accomplished: for that that is determined shall be done. Neither shall he regard the God of his fathers, nor the desire of women, nor regard any god: for he shall magnify himself above all. But in his estate shall he honour the God of forces: and a god whom his fathers knew not shall he honour with gold, and silver, and with precious stones, and pleasant things. Thus shall he do in the most strong holds with a strange god, whom he shall acknowledge and increase with glory: and he shall cause them to rule over many, and shall divide the land for gain." (Daniel 11:36-39)

IS ROSEANNE BARR A LOOSE CANON?

Roseanne is typical of the many Jewish American actors and actresses in America who are able to prosper because they are Jewish and support the left wing socialist movement that is part of the World Government program to destroy, not only America, but every nation in the world.

Roseanne Barr was born in 1952 in Salt Lake City, Utah, which is the headquarters for the Mormon Church. Her grandparents were European and Russian Jewish immigrants. Her father's name was Jerome Hershel Barr, but the original family name used to be Borisofsky. The family kept their Jewish lineage a secret and Barr later said she was a Jew on Friday, Saturday and Sunday mornings, but Sunday, Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons she was a Mormon.

OTHER SUPPORTERS OF THE OCCUPY WALL STREET MOVEMENT

Supreme Leader of Iran Ayatollah Seyyed Ali Khamenei has praised the moment as a cleansing of the Satanic leaders of the United States. The Socialist/Communist president of Venezuela, Hugo Chavez, is giving his heartfelt support to the movement. The Communist government of North Korea is delighted over the uprising and has publicly stated so and there is also strong support coming from the Communist Party USA and the American Nazi Party.

There is an old saying that a person can be identified by their friends. The different kinds of supporters of Occupy Wall Street leaves no doubt in any educated person's mind as to what the goal is of the leaders of this movement. It is not for the betterment of the American people, but an opportunity to destroy our infrastructure and prepare America for the coming Antichrist. Here is a quote from the official website of the Communist Party USA:

"This is an exciting time! Thousands of mainly young people have been occupying Wall Street for three weeks already, and the "Occupy Movement" has spread to more than 200 other cities. On Oct. 6 the actions spread to our nation's capital.

Southern California Party leader Arturo Cambron will share how the CPUSA and Young Communist League (YCL) are working in "Occupy Los Angeles."

This movement, also known as the "99% movement," is being hailed across the country. Movements and organizations are reaching out in solidarity. The AFL-CIO is opening union halls and offering other material assistance. Ordinary people are donating food, money and materials.

No doubt the "Arab Spring" demonstrations and those that exploded in Wisconsin, Ohio and elsewhere have inspired it. But underlying it all is the economic crisis, the massive unemployment and growing realization that nothing is getting better, and in fact we may be slipping into a "double dip" crisis. The crushing student debt and the feeling of being locked out of society with no future compound this.

The movement is the newest wrinkle in the all-people's upsurge against the banks and corporations and reflects a new level of class-consciousness.

While there are a wide range of political and ideological trends, there is a consensus against corporate greed, getting money out of politics, taxing the rich and putting people before profits.

A big challenge for the CPUSA and left, progressive movements is to link these demonstrations with the labor led all-people's coalition and help deepen understanding that the path to progress must be through electoral and political action including defeating Republican Tea Party reaction in 2012.

Of primary importance is linking it with the burgeoning fight for jobs and especially passage of the American Jobs Act.

We can also play a role in offering more advanced programmatic ideas like nationalizing the banks and socialism.

To have a positive impact, the CPUSA and YCL must be a part of the "Occupy" movement, participating at every level and building greater local support for the actions among labor and progressive forces.

See you all on the call October 11!"<sup>6</sup>

SUMMARY

Irregardless of Kalle Lasn and all the other known supporters of the Occupy Wall Street movement, the master deceivers pulling the strings are the World Government. I urge you to read my four Kaballah books to get a historical perspective of what the World Government leaders have done during the last 300 years. Once you know these historical facts, you will see that the Occupy Wall Street movement is just another tool that these leaders are using to further politically, morally and financially weaken the nations until they are so weak and exhausted that the people demand a global world government to end all the fighting and suffering from wars and unemployment.

There might be words spoken against the international Jewish bankers but that means nothing. The Zionist leadership is using this as a "vaccine" to make them immune against more attacks since the majority of the people are going to reject the Occupy Wall Street movement and the slurs spoken against Jews. Meanwhile, the Jewish population is fearful of a backlash, and this will drive them into the arms of the Zionist World Federation, where they will feel safe from the Gentiles.

The World Zionist Federation, which is synonymous with the World Government, is following the play book they wrote in 1897, and if you understand that truth, you will also be able to discern the truth about the Occupy Wall Street movement. Here is an excerpt from that document:

"...In order to put public opinion into our hands we must bring it into a state of bewilderment by giving expression from all sides to so many contradictory opinions and for such length of time as will suffice to make the people lose their heads in the labyrinth and come to see that the best thing is to have no opinion of any kind in matters political, which it is not given to the public to understand, because they are understood only by him who guides the public. This is the first secret.

The second secret requisite for the success of our government is comprised in the following: To multiply to such an extent national failings, habits, passions, conditions of civil life, that it will be impossible for anyone to know where he is in the resulting chaos, so that the people in consequence will fail to understand one another. This measure will also serve us in another way, namely, to sow discord in all parties, to dislocate all collective forces which are still unwilling to submit to us, and to discourage any kind of personal initiative which might in any degree hinder our affair.

There is nothing more dangerous than personal initiative; if it has genius behind it, such initiative can do more than can be done by millions of people among whom we have sown discord..."

Barry Goldwater was an American Jew from the state of Arizona that showed that dangerous personal initiative when he broke rank with the Zionist leadership. In 1964 he narrowly defeated Nelson Rockefeller and became the Republican nominee for president of the United States. Lyndon Baines Johnson was his democratic opponent and the Zionist leadership pulled all the strings they had so that even a majority of Republican voters gave their support to Johnson. How many people born after 1960 have been taught about this nasty presidential campaign when Goldwater was character assassinated by the furious Jewish American media?
