THE DESTRUCTION OF THE SOUTHERN BAPTIST CONVENTION

I am taking a break from the Dancing Around the Golden Calf series to focus my attention on the destruction of one of the most prominent fundamental Christian denominations in the United States. I have been aware of the inroads that Rick Warren and his Purpose Driven doctrine are having on Southern Baptist churches. It was not until I was sent a copy of Rev. Noah Hutchings' book, "The Dark Side of the Purpose Driven Church," that I realized that the denomination through which I am licensed and ordained is being destroyed by a hideous spiritual cancer.

Some time ago, as our ministry was revising my first study book in English (Christian Dynamics Course 1), I had done research on Rick Warren, his connection with Golden Gate Baptist Theological Seminary in Mill Valley, California and the impact this seminary will have on future ministers. When I realized how destructive the Purpose-Driven doctrine is, I knew that this information needs to come out to a larger audience than what my book would reach in the near future.

THE MACHINE BEHIND RICK WARREN

I did not know that Church Transitions, the organization behind Rick Warren is a well oiled machine that selected and transformed him into a leading "guru" of the New Age Movement in Evangelical/Fundamental Christian churches in the United States. I was saddened and grieved at the information I found when I searched for Church Transitions. Rather than trying to condense what they are about, I am taking verbatim what they say on their website so that you can see how the founder and his helpers describe themselves. One thing is for sure, someone has invested some big money to get this group going:

"The process of transition that we teach is a simple one:

- Step one - Prepare for change
- Step two - Define your changes
- Step three - Plant your vision with your key leaders
- Step four - Share your vision with the whole church
- Step five - Implement your changes
- Step six - Deal with the opposition
- Step seven - Make adjustments
- Step eight - Evaluate the result

"Following 13 successful years as the lead pastor/teacher of Flamingo Road Church, in Fort Lauderdale, FL, Dan Southerland started Church Transitions Inc., an organization that trains pastors and church leaders to effectively manage major transitions. Dan has trained over 100,000 pastors and church leaders in the past seven years. His focus is how to implement the purpose-driven paradigm in existing churches. Dan is now one of the pastors at Next Level Church in Charlotte, North Carolina.

“Glen Sartain is an international transition coach that has directly led multiple traditional churches through transition to become fully Purpose Driven as both worship leader and pastor. He currently serves as transitioning coach to multiple individual churches and pastors groups called ‘Coaching Networks.’ He has had the privilege of coaching and assisting hundreds of pastors and churches through transition and change.

Glen Sartain

“Glenn Wagner is the president and visionary of FutureLead. He is a former pastor of Calvary Church in Charlotte, North Carolina with an average Sunday attendance of over 3,000.

Glenn Wagner

“Glenn is an author and contributor of nine books including: The Church You’ve Always Wanted, Escape From Church, Inc., and The Heart of a Godly Man.

“He served as Vice President and Minister at Large for Promise Keepers, an international Christ-centered organization dedicated to introducing men to Jesus Christ as their Savior and Lord; and then helping them grow as Christians.

“Dan Southerland is the founder and director of Church Transitions Inc. Dan developed this process for change while serving as the pastor/teacher of the Flamingo Road Church in Fort Lauderdale, Florida. During the thirteen years of his ministry at Flamingo Road, the church made some major changes:

Dan Southerland

- Approach - from being program driven to being purpose driven.
- Target - from reaching believers to reaching the unchurched.
- Worship Style - from traditional to contemporary.
- Pastors - from a senior pastor model to a shared pastor model.
- Leadership - from a committee led church to being staff led.

- Ministry - from pastors doing all the ministry to pastors equipping people to do the ministry.
- Small Groups - from a traditional Sunday School model to a relational cell group model.
- Services - from one weekend worship service to five weekend services (two on Saturday night; three on Sunday morning).

“God blessed these changes big time! Flamingo Road grew from 300 in worship to 2300 in average attendance. They also started 23 other churches. And today, 60% of those who join Flamingo Road Church are unchurched when they first attend.

“Dan Southerland has had the privilege of training 100,000 church leaders in these principles of transition over the past 7 years - in 30 different countries! He has been teaching at the Purpose Driven Church conference held by Saddleback Church for the past 7 years. About half of the events we do each year are co-sponsored by Purpose Driven Ministries.”<sup>1</sup>

END OF QUOTE

RICK WARREN – THE SPIRITUAL JUNK BOND KING

During the 1980s, there was an American Jewish financial investor by the name of Michael Milken who became a dreaded word in the business world. Born in 1946, he was in his forties when he led corporate raids and hostile takeovers of factories and other businesses in the United States. He financed his empire of destruction by issuing the so-called junk bonds (high-yield debts). Milken and his robber barons targeted successful businesses and over powered them with their large amount of cash. Once a business had been taken over, Milken sold off the company assets in order to pay back the loans. The end result was that jobs were lost and the business was irreparably damaged and unable to rebuild. Milken and his cohorts did not care about the workers, their retirement funds and the future of their children. Once businesses had been plundered, many of them closed their doors to never open again.

Eventually Milken was indicted on 98 counts of racketeering and security fraud in 1989 as the result of an insider trading investigation. After a plea bargain, Milken plead guilty to six securities and reporting felonies and was sentenced to 10 years in Federal prison. He served less than two years.

Rick Warren is using a different tactic in taking over churches and getting them under his control. Using an eight point program, he is luring pastors to the seminars that are set up to promote the Purpose Driven programs. Pastors are instructed how to take control of a church, destroy its foundation and become a clone of the Saddleback church.

RICK WARREN AND HIS PURPOSE DRIVEN LIFE

Richard D. Warren was born in San Jose, California in 1954. He grew up as a PK (preacher's kid) his father being a Southern Baptist preacher. As a PK, he was moved around and attended high school in Ukiah, California and graduated in 1972. He enrolled at the California Baptist College in Riverside, California, where he graduated with a BA degree in 1976. He then moved to Fort Worth, Texas, where he attended Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary and graduated with a Master of Divinity in 1979. He attended Fuller Theological Seminary in Pasadena and graduated with a Ph.D. in Ministry.

Rick Warren

Since I was in the Southern Baptist Convention from 1966 until 1973, attended district conventions, and graduated from Golden Gate Baptist Theological Seminary in 1973, I can easily see the transition in Warren's theological thinking. The Southern Baptist pastors working in California after World War II were humble men, most of them coming from the South and Midwest, who toiled hard as they pioneered new churches. Their faith was simple as they preached salvation and holiness with Jesus Christ at the center. Many of the pastors worked in secular jobs to feed their families since the congregations were small and most of the converts were either poor or lower middle class people. Church buildings were simple, and as the phrase went at the time, "they were located on the wrong side of the railroad track."

People born after 1970 do not have any knowledge of what life was like in a typical Southern Baptist church from 1945 until 1970. Services were simple, with hymn singing and preaching on Sunday morning and evening. Before the Sunday morning service, there was Sunday school for all ages. In the evening there was a teaching program called, "Training Union." The material was uniform and produced by Broadman, a Southern Baptist publishing house. The Sunday school program was designed so that the entire Bible would be covered in a five year cycle. "Training Union" taught doctrine, Christian ethics, mission history and current outreaches. My wife and I attended all services on Sundays, and during our three and a half year stay at our first church home in Salt Lake City, we were firmly grounded in the Word of God and sound Christian doctrine. Wednesday night was prayer night and this is where we learned to pray. Thursday night was visitation, where we would go out and witness to people in the area. Saturday was occasionally used to repair the church building. From time to time, there was a fellowship dinner in the church after the morning service, and on those days, we stayed in church all day till the evening service started.

My wife and I were on fire for the Lord and we loved to spend time with the people in the church. Winning people for Christ was the highlight in our lives. We lived for Christ and for the church, and even though we spent much time in church, our marriage grew stronger and stronger. The church would put on a week of revival every spring and fall. An evangelist (usually a pastor from a different state) would come as the speaker for that week and there would be special music from a singer or gospel group. Prior to the revival, we would hand out flyers and double our visitation outreach to bring in the lost to the church. We learned the phrase, "pack a pew," in which each family would be responsible to fill one pew with visitors. Smaller churches did not have a bus ministry to bring in children for church, so members would leave an hour early on Sunday mornings and pick up children whose parents would not come to church, but who allowed their children to do so. There was no griping about giving too much time to the Lord, as all of us were on fire and we would do anything to find a sinner and lead them to Christ.

This is the way Rick Warren grew up. These were the times before mega television ministries began to dominate the American landscape with networks like PTL (Jim and Tammy Bakker), TBN (Paul and Jan Crouch), and CBN (Pat Robertson), which destroyed the fiber of local churches and got people used to “high class” Christian entertainment.

California Baptist College and Golden Gate Seminary were established by humble pastors, led by Area Missionaries (district supervisors). The goal was to establish learning centers for Southern Baptist young people and train them to become strong fundamental Bible believing Christians.

Jim & Tammy Bakker

In the 1960s, a new generation took over; they were influenced from the Southern Baptist seminaries in the East and South. The professors at these schools had received their Ph.D.'s from prestigious seminaries like Union Theological Seminary, Princeton, etc., but they had lost their faith in the Bible. They bragged about their knowledge of liberal German theologians whose faith had been shipwrecked and were nothing but proud empty vessels believing in higher criticism (i.e. the Bible is not infallible).

Pat Robertson

As Southern Baptist Churches had attracted upper middle class people with college and professional degrees, there was no more room for humble pastors. Before 1950, it was enough for a pastor to hold a preaching license from his home church, but that changed in the 1960s as most churches required a Bachelor's degree (BA). It was mandatory in the 1970s to have a M.Div. (Master of Divinity) and no man today will be called to a well-established church unless he holds a Doctor of Ministry or Theology.

Church boards nowadays are just like investors in the stock market, demanding ever increasing profits, not concerned about the people working in the factories and businesses. In much the same way, church boards want growth at any cost. They couldn't care less about the quality of Christian living as long as the churches are packed full with potential tithers and the money is flowing in. This is what happened as the spirit of Pride ruled the churches and it became a competition to see who could have the largest crowds and biggest church complexes. The more people a pastor could attract, the bigger his salary would go, and in time he could put in his application for a bigger church. Church conventions turned into bragging times, where pastors would size each other up to see who had the fastest growing church, the biggest attendance, etc. Church Boards would attend these conventions to scout out new pastors, just like in the sports world where talent scouts look for better players, and then pay them large sums of money to come and play on their team. The ambition of becoming a pastor in a mega church is what drives young ministers coming from the preacher assembly lines (seminaries) today.

In order to be successful in any denomination in the United States and the Western World, a seminary student must toe the line, be politically correct, and lick the boots of the power brokers in the denomination.

During the 1970-80s, Southern Baptist seminaries became graveyards, so if a man was on fire for the Lord when he arrived, by the time he graduated, he had been transformed to a proud scholastic individual, void of faith in God but well trained in the profession of running a modern day church. The young preacher would be well-schooled in psychology and marketed as a social engineer. Local churches wanted growth at any cost, and the Gospel of the cross, repentance, hell and a holy life had to go by the wayside as churches became “seeker friendly.”

Rick Warren became a typical social engineer by the time he started his studies at Fuller Theological Seminary which is well-known for its ultra-liberal theology. Having been raised as a PK, Rick came from a humble financial background where the children learned to live a frugal life because there was not a lot of money to go around. He was like a ripe fruit when he began to attend the Crystal Cathedral and listen to Robert Schuller, a master deceiver and a slick worker in religion much like Herbert W. Armstrong. The principal teaching in “The Purpose Driven Life” is nothing but New Age teachings from Robert Schuller.

Robert Schuller

As of 2007, more than 20 million copies of “The Purpose-Driven Life” have been sold and 400,000 pastors and leaders from all over the world have attended a seminar or conference led by Rick Warren. Saddleback Church has started a non-profit website where Christian leaders in 162 nations are using material developed by Warren and his staff and 189,000 church leaders subscribe to his weekly newsletter.

What is the reason that Rick Warren has catapulted and become known worldwide as a religious leader? After all, he is not a charismatic evangelist holding mass meetings to vast crowds of unsaved people?

A KISS OF DEATH

The leadership of the World Government is always looking for young people they can harness, train, and use for their own purposes. Just like Bill Clinton, as a young college student, was given a Rhode's scholarship and trained to carry out the policies of his handlers, so Rick Warren has been snared by the powers that be. It is difficult to trace every step taken by Rick since his handlers are very cautious about people knowing the workings behind the scenes, but Rick has left enough of a trail behind him that it is possible for us to know partly for whom he works and their agenda.

The road to success began in 1979, when Rick Warren and his wife Kay drove from Texas to the Los Angeles area to attend a workshop on church growth held at the Crystal Cathedral with Robert Schuller. At that time, Rick was in his last year at the seminary, and when he graduated he moved to Orange County, close to the Crystal Cathedral. Both Rick and Kay became great admirers of Schuller and attended a number of workshops as Rick studied at Fuller Theological Seminary.

Kay Warren

Twenty-three years after attending his first Schuller workshop, "The Purpose Driven Life" was released and printed by Zondervan publishing house. Why would a mainline Christian publishing house take on a book that quotes time and time again from "The Message: The Bible in Contemporary Language?" It is the worst bible produced in the United States. Worse than that, the book is the hidden life work of Robert Schuller but penned by Rick Warren. Educated Christian leaders know very well that Schuller is deeply involved in the occult and has based his theology and writings from people in the New Age and occult societies. What Rick has done is to take his study notes from Schuller seminars, the books Schuller has written and presented it in such a way that the average church member wouldn't know it was Robert Schuller's material.

It is not feasible for me at this time to list all the New Age teachings in "The Purpose Driven Life." Instead, I will refer you to an excellent book written by Warren Smith called, "Deceived on Purpose," where this former New Age disciple has done a tremendous scholastic work in exposing Rick Warren as a disciple of Robert Schuller. We carry this book in our bookstore, so please contact us if you wish to obtain a copy.

Robert Schuller has been on the inside of the World Government for years, he even had Mikael Gorbachev appear on the televised Hour of Power service. I'm sure that Schuller noticed Rick Warren and developed him into a so-called "pied piper" to lead the Southern Baptist Convention into the hands of the World Government leadership. At his seminars, Schuller has "talent scouts" looking for bright young men and women who can be led astray to embrace occult concepts. The fact that Rick Warren is a disciple of Schuller can be seen in this quote by Schuller from the Hour of Power program which aired on April 4, 2004:

"And there's Rick Warren, a pastor who today is phenomenal. He came to our institute time after time. And in 'Christianity Today,' his wife was quoted as saying, 'When we came to that institute, we were blown away.'"

Incidentally, it is interesting to note that Christianity Today is a liberal magazine started by Billy Graham, but the thoughts, ideas, references, words, terms, phrases and quotes in "The Purpose Driven Life" are from the speeches and writings of Robert Schuller, who in turn has taken much of this from occult writers and New Age people.

SOUTHERN BAPTIST IGNORANCE

During the month of May, 2007 I decided to contact the Dr. Jeff Iorg, who is the president of Golden Gate Baptist Theological Seminary (Southern Baptist) in Mill Valley, California. I wanted to know where the seminary stood on the question of "The Purpose Driven Life." Here are the e-mails we exchanged:

Dear President Iorg,

As I was reading through Gateway, Spring 2007, I became very curious about your stand on "The Purpose Driven Life" as presented by Rick Warren.

My wife and I lived at the seminary in Mill Valley from 1969-73 when I graduated with a M.Div. degree. When you have the time I would appreciate a response from you.

Yours in Christ,

John S. Torell

Pastor of Resurrection Life of Jesus Church

Dear John,

We are partners with Rick Warren for seminary education. He has about 40 students from Saddleback that we have enrolled at our Southern California Campus. I have never been asked for "my stand" on "The Purpose-Driven Life" but I would endorse the book as a good tool to help people discover a relationship with God.

Dear President Iorg,

Thank you for your very fast reply. It surprised me greatly.

In our ministry we carry a book called, "Deceived on Purpose," by Warren Smith, who came out of the New Age movement some years ago. A friend of our ministry sent us a copy some time ago, and when I read it, I was deeply troubled. Rick Warren is not only a Southern Baptist, but he spent time under the training by Robert Schuller, who is deeply involved in the New Age. Portions of Rick Warren's book are taken from Schuller's teaching.

Would you be willing to receive a copy of Warren Smith's book as a gift from our ministry and read it? I know that you are more than busy, but I believe that when it comes to Biblical doctrine, we must not overlook this and get into a belief system that is not in harmony with the Bible.

When I attended the seminary, I came into conflict with some of the professors over their stand on the Bible. I was around 26 years old when I started and had been working in civil engineering for six years; I was married and had been active at Central Baptist Church in Salt Lake City from my conversion in 1965 until we left in 1969 to attend the seminary. My pastors were from the south and very conservatively held the Word of God dear.

We were about 100 men at the orientation in the fall of 1969 and the professor in charge told us "we were in for a rude awakening if we had come expecting a camp meeting revival style fellowship. This is a strict academic institution, and if you want to keep your Christian faith alive, it is up to each man to take care of this." We were later told that Moses did not write the five books of Moses, they were written by others and we should not take the content as fact, but just look at the principles. We were told the same thing about the book of Isaiah and that the book of Daniel was forgery, written by Jews in the century prior to Jesus as a political manifesto. The four Gospels could not be trusted, so we should never preach an absolute truth out of them, but only use them as principles for living. The book of Revelation was a fairytale, written as a coded message from the Apostle John to the congregation in Ephesus while John was imprisoned on the island of Patmos.

Jeff Iorg

Many of the young men who came directly from college to the seminary had their faith destroyed; those of us who were older and had been grounded in the Word of God in our churches were able to keep our faith. I felt that the seminary was more interested in making "social engineers," since there was no place for the Holy Spirit and a solid faith in the Bible as the Word of God.

I am sharing this with you so you will know of the grief in my spirit that I have over the seminary. I stayed there and finished my degree because God told me to stay. I learned how to study, write, and know the apostasy that had crept into the Southern Baptist denomination.

Most of the professors who taught me are now retired or dead and one day I will meet them again at the Judgment Seat of Christ. As a result, I could not be silent anymore when I realized the seminary had embraced the teaching of Rick Warren.

When I read some time ago that you had become the president for the seminary, I was happy because what I read and heard from you indicated there was hope for the seminary. Now my heart is broken afresh. I don't really know how you will react but I await your response.

Sincerely yours,

Dear John,

The seminary has changed dramatically from the days you were here. Our professors love the Bible, serve the church (many are also pastors or in similar roles, and love students. Prayer meetings, mission trips, and evangelism reports are our daily activities. Our students want to go to the ends of the earth with the gospel. Our professors have been there, and come back to send more in their place.

I will be glad to receive your book and put it on my reading list. I have known Rick since he was a seminary student. Like most high profile leaders, I think he sometimes mis-speaks. But, overall, I have been glad to be his friend and support his ministry. I know you have studied this matter and come to your convictions. I won't try to argue them with you.

I believe Golden Gate is on the right track - strong commitment to the Bible, missions focus, pastoral hearts, and passionate students. I hope to meet you sometime and give you a personal flavor for who we have become and what we are doing.

MY COMMENTS

Jeff Iorg is in the same age bracket as Rick Warren and according to what he said, he must have attended seminary at the same time as Warren. Iorg is a well-educated Southern Baptist, yet he has no concerns about the occult and New Age, and he recommends Warren's book as a great tool for people to discover God. However, the god in "The Purpose Driven Life" is not the God of the Bible. What a tragedy for a man of Iorg's caliber, who is in charge of training young men and women for Christian service, that he does not have the knowledge or desire to protect them from being indoctrinated with satanic thinking.

There has been no response from Jeff Iorg after he received the book, "Deceived on Purpose." The following excerpt is from an article that recently came across my desk, and in my aforementioned correspondence with Jeff Iorg, he failed to declare how much of a partnership actually exists between Rick Warren and Golden Gate Baptist Theological Seminary.

"The Lilly Endowment 'a private foundation...that supports community development, education and religion,' has also helped fund the Drucker Foundation. But more recently, it has shown its support for Baptist leadership and pastoral training. Strangely enough, the two -- Druckers communitarian vision for the 'social sector' and seminary training in community-building -- fit together. The article, 'Golden Gate Seminary Receives $300,000 Lilly Endowment Grant' tells us that the funds would provide 'hardware, software, renovations and training needed to fully integrate up-to-date technology' with the seminary's training program.

This grant makes all the more sense in light of a new partnership between Golden Gate Seminary and Saddleback Church. The Baptist seminary will build a new branch on the Saddleback campus to train church leaders to use the digital data tracking technology needed to meet and monitor community needs around the world."<sup>2</sup>

Two questions come to mind: how much money is Rick Warren pumping into the Golden Gate Seminary and how many more seminaries will be infiltrated?

THE WORLD GOVERNMENT CONNECTIONS OF RICK WARREN

Rick Warren is a member of The Council on Foreign Relations (CFR), which is a sister organization to The Trilateral Commission (TC). I do not know how long Rick has been a member of this elite World Government organization that informed Christians know as a powerful cabal of leaders in the World Government agencies but here is an excerpt from an e-mail that he sent to his congregation at Saddleback on September 17, 2005:

David Young

"Dear Saddleback Family.... This week I shared part of this message in New York City where I spoke at the United Nations, and also to The Council on Foreign Relations..."

Oxford Analytica is another organization of which Rick Warren is a member. I had never heard of it before and this is what I found out about it. It was founded by an American named David R. Young, who as a young man came to Oxford, England to study law in 1961. He returned to the United States in 1963 to get a law degree from

Cornell University. After his graduation, he went back to England to be registered as an attorney with the Bar of England, and then returned to the United States where he worked for a law firm in New York. After four years he was discovered by the Rockefeller clan who introduced him to Henry Kissinger. When Kissinger was appointed to become President Nixon's Assistant for National Security Affairs, David Young was asked to serve as Kissinger's Administrative Assistant in late 1969. David worked in this position until 1973, when he resigned and moved back to Oxford and worked on his Ph.D., using his activities during his stay at the White House as his subject. The project was finished in 1981.

Henry Kissinger

While he was working on his doctorate, he did a study for General Electric (GE) regarding what the business climate would be during the next three to five years. GE was very pleased with the result and ordered more studies for a number of nations. In order to do this, Young hired people to form teams who could work in the different nations. By 1975, the business corporation was formed, offering political and economical forecasts for different nations that were needed by global corporations for their planning for future growth. Oxford Analytica has developed into a private intelligence service, selling their services not only to private corporations but also to governments.

TWO IMPORTANT QUESTIONS

1. Most members of CFR are not Christians. They range from Luciferians, atheists, agnostics, practicing Jews, Freemasons, etc. So what does a Southern Baptist pastor have to offer these ungodly world elite?
2. What can a Southern Baptist pastor contribute to an international private intelligence service which caters to global corporations and national governments?

Let me now answer these two questions. First, as of 2007, the Southern Baptist Convention has around 16.3 million members, the second largest denomination after the Roman Catholic Church. This is a huge voting block in American elections, and by pampering Rick Warren and appealing to his ego (just as was done to Billy Graham and others), the CFR will have a "pied piper" to lead this group of people in a direction beneficial to the policies of the CFR. Warren is also being used as a talent scout to find young people who can be enticed into involvement in international politics and become "useful idiots" in the future for the World Government. At the Southern Baptist Convention, Warren can be used to sway the opinion of statements adopted by the convention.

Second, intelligence services have recruited missionaries and ministers in the United States to serve as undercover agents for many years. This is something that I observed for myself while I was in seminary training. Normal people do not have a criminal mind and therefore do not understand what is going on behind closed doors. A good intelligence agent not only spies and collects information but is also trained to plant disinformation and sway political leaders to change directions in private sessions. Now you should understand why Rick Warren has an open door to North Korea under the pretense of preaching the Gospel? Why did he travel to Syria to meet the president of that nation? What kind of message was he relaying?

Some national governments have rightfully accused American missionaries of being spies. The CIA, FBI and other agencies can deny it, but it is true that they have recruited pastors and missionaries. The majority of pastors and missionaries do not work for intelligence services but there are enough of these spies to destroy the reputation of the Church of Jesus Christ.

Rick and Kay Warren are very rich people and donate 90% of their income to three foundations. Rick does not receive a salary anymore from the Saddleback church and has paid back his salaries received for the last 25 years. However, if they really wanted to be humble, they would never have made this information public.

There is no doubt in my mind that Rick Warren as a young boy accepted Christ and at one time was on fire for the Lord. But those days are gone and the ministry Warren has now is not the Gospel according to the Bible, but a social world pleasing message, where the emphasis is shifting to global warming, saving the environment, and going green. We must remember that Jesus did not die on the cross to save the planet but to save and redeem sinful mankind. After all, when everything is said and done, this planet will be destroyed and nothing will be saved by God. (2 Peter 3:10-13)

aggregator containing profiles of prominent individuals. Is it a coincidence that when they listed some statistics on Rick Warren, they also mentioned depression as one of his risk factors? NNDB states the following about depression:

“A listing in this section does not necessarily mean that an individual is currently depressed. Nor does it indicate something is wrong with the individual or that there ever was: depression is often a condition resulting from events outside of someone's control. If someone has had public battles with depression, expect them on this list. But please bear in mind its historical nature and do not treat it as a diagnosis.”<sup>3</sup>

Any believer in Christ who strays away from the Lord, becomes involved in the occult world, and then moves into the world and becomes successful will be empty on the inside as the Holy Spirit is kicked out and evil spirits are invited. If you are one of the sheep who got lured into the Purpose Driven program, repent and return to the Lord.

If you have access to the internet, I strongly suggest you visit the following link, because it explains what I just previously mentioned, plus if this information is new to you, there are an abundance of links that will captivate you.

HILLARY RODHAM CLINTON AND RICK WARREN

In November 2007, Rick and Kay Warren hosted a “Global Summit on Aids and the Church” at the Saddleback church complex in Orange County, California. Flyers advertising the conference were sent out to every church listed in the phonebook in California.

According to the official flyer, the goal of this conference was to focus on the need to care for people with AIDS. Here is a statement on the flyer:

“Whether you are a pastor or a local church leader, physician, scientist, government official, business professional, student, educator, relief organization or person with HIV/AIDS, the 2007 Global Summit is the only place where people from every field come together to interact, share best practices, and focus on the practical next steps in caring about people infected and affected by HIV.”

There was a total of eight Pre-Summit sessions, each priced at $45. The cost of the main conference meetings was $299 if you registered early and $349 for walk-ins. Rick Warren knows that the young people are the future and also scheduled a Youth Summit to be held on December 1st, with a cost of $15. Interestingly, the Youth Summit was reasonably priced to encourage the parents to have their children indoctrinated.

Peter Piot

It was advertised that over 50 global speakers had been secured, including Peter Piot, MD, Ph.D., who is the Under Secretary General for the United Nations. The wives of the presidents of Zambia and Rwanda were part of the speakers, plus a number of other so called dignitaries. None of them were advertised as outstanding soul winners for Christ, instead, they were either medical doctors, directors of liberal social ministries or pastors of some liberal church. Reading the brochure it was evident that Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit were not invited. It is noteworthy to point out that one of the key speakers at this conference was Lynne Hybels, the wife of Bill Hybels.

Lynne Hybels

There was no discussion about the danger of homosexuality, instead, everything was focused on care, medication and easing the pain of the people suffering from AIDS.

Hillary Clinton showed up on the second day of the conference and was given the opportunity to speak to the some 1,700 attendees. Rick Warren gave her a warm introduction and a hug before she spoke, to which the people attending responded by giving her a standing ovation.

Clinton & Warren

All the presidential candidates had been invited to come but Hillary was the only one that took time off from the primary campaign to fly out to California. Since all political candidates have speech writers, the speech for this audience was written in such a way that it would persuade this religious audience to vote for her. The speech writer wrote in many biblical references and some “personal religious thoughts” from Clinton. Her solution to the AIDS problem was to call for billions of dollars to be spent combating HIV/AIDS and other infectious diseases at home and abroad.

It is interesting to note that if a person in the United States is found to be infected with Tuberculosis, the medical doctor in charge will demand that the person be detained and locked up in a hospital until it is proven that the person is cured. If the infected person does not go along with this, law enforcement will arrest the person and bring them to be quarantined in a locked hospital ward. However, if a person is diagnosed with HIV/AIDS, they are free to roam about and do anything they want, including acts of sodomy, which are known to spread the infection. But since homosexuality is a political issue, HIV/AIDS is by default a political disease and cannot be treated like Tuberculosis; only treatment to the sum of billions of dollars is allowed.

If Rick Warren and his wife Kay were true believers in Christ, they would never have gone along with this charade. They would not have courted Hillary Clinton, who in turn knows that the Warren’s can turn out millions of so-called Christian voters come election time.

HOW A CHURCH IS DESTROYED

In his book “The Dark Side of the Purpose Driven Church,” Noah Hutchings describes how the Southern Baptist Church he belonged to in Oklahoma City was made into a Purpose Driven church.

It began in the fall of 2003, when the current pastor, Dr. Mark Hartman, resigned and went to another church. Some people in leadership of the church, including the minister of music, had been sold on the Purpose Driven Life and were able to put together a list of seven people who were going to be on the search committee for the new pastor. At a business meeting, the membership accepted the slate as presented, and in a short time a pastor was lined up and voted in by the majority of the church members. It is important to remember that the rank and file members of the church had no understanding of the coup in progress.

CHURCH LEADERSHIP TRAINING

Shortly after the new pastor had been voted in, he and others in leadership traveled to Willow Creek Church in Chicago to attend a training session for the Purpose Driven Life. Bill Hybels and Rick Warren are buddies, each building their own little empire. In order to understand what happened to the pastor from Oklahoma City when he arrived at Hybels’ church, it is necessary to take a look at Bill Hybels.

WILLIAM (BILL) HYBELS

Every denomination in the United States has been infiltrated by liberal demonic doctrine and the Evangelical Free Church of America is no exception. This denomination has its roots from the Scandinavian Mission Covenant Churches that were born out of an awakening in Sweden in 1878. People broke away from the Swedish State Lutheran Church, and it became a strong evangelical movement preaching the necessity to be born again, but they were never able to break away from infant baptism. As millions of Swedes, Danes and Norwegians immigrated to the United States to escape the poverty that existed in the Scandinavian nations in the 1800s and early 1900s, they brought with them the Mission Covenant Church, and in 1885, the Swedish Evangelical Covenant Church was founded in Chicago, Illinois.

Bill Hybels

In 1884, a group of Swedes in Boone, Iowa founded the Swedish Evangelical Free Mission, and for some time the two denominations worked together until they eventually became two separate entities. Bill Hybels has his roots from the Evangelical Free Church, which is a merger of the Swedish Evangelical Free Church and the Norwegian-Danish Evangelical Free Church that took place in 1950.

Bill Hybels was born in 1952 in Kalamazoo, Michigan. At the age of 20, Hybels was the youth pastor at Park Ridge’s South Park Church in the Chicago area. With Dave Holmbo, he started a youth group called “Son City.” By 1975, the youth group had grown from 25 to 1,200 young people. Modern music (rock), dramatic skits, and multimedia with Bible studies using bastard versions of the Bible propelled the growth of the group.

Bill married his wife Lynne in 1974, and during the same year, he began the work to start their own church. The first meeting was held on October 12, 1975, and Willow Creek Church was born. The first meeting was attended by 125 people, and by 1977, the church had grown to a membership of some 2,000. In 1981, the church relocated to South Barrington (Chicago area). Ten years later, Bill introduced cell groups and by the year 2000, more than 15,000 people attended the church along with a cell network of some 2,600 groups.

Bill Hybels more or less bypassed the denomination he came from and has built his own denomination called, The Willow Creek Association, with some 11,000 churches worldwide. Bill has developed what is called “seeker sensitive” churches, using modern worship (rock music), drama, and friendly messages geared for the unchurched people. The Wednesday night service is geared as a light Bible study for new believers.

Bill Hybels is the CEO for around 48 full-time pastors who run this huge business empire. Hybels is spending more and more time traveling to lecture, teach and increase his denomination. He has a BA degree in Biblical Studies from Trinity Evangelical Divinity School in Deerfield, Illinois and was later given an honorary doctor of divinity degree. The school is owned and operated by the Evangelical Free Churches of America.

The preaching of the cross, repentance, salvation, hell and the coming judgment for all people has been replaced with dance and drama in the worship services, including so-called Christian rock music and multimedia slideshows. Hybels is also tied in with Robert Schuller, and in the books he has written, Hybels gives much credit for his success to the “positive thinking” marketed by Schuller. Hybels even promoted the Robert Schuller Institute in a November 18, 1988, advertisement in the magazine, “Christianity Today.”

WHAT IS A HYBELS CHURCH?

Bill Hybels is a showman and gives people what they want, a contemporary church with rock music, dance, entertainment, and a feel good message based on bastard translations of the Bible. It is void of any confrontation of the sinful nature of man, the need for repentance and receiving Jesus as Lord and Saviour. There is no talk about hell and later the Lake of Fire. According to Bill’s own writing, his church contains Alcoholics Anonymous, Al-Anon, Narcotics Anonymous, Emotions Anonymous, etc. In addition, they have counseling centers, a food pantry, employment counseling, and a benevolent ministry for people with financial needs.

Hybels also states that there are two different gospels, one for man and one for women. According to Hybels, the gospel message for a man is that a relationship with Jesus Christ is essential to avoid mindless misinterpretations of masculine identity. For a woman, the gospel is that Jesus Christ offers freedom from being a people-pleaser, thereby allowing her to satisfy her need for inner security.

A Hybels church does not have a conventional worship service. There is no altar, choir, organ, hymnals or song books and the music has many different styles (i.e. rock, jazz, country and classical). The message conveyed is upbeat, but the idea is not so much about being saved from eternal damnation in the Lake of Fire, but a salvation from meaninglessness and aimlessness in life on earth.

THE NEW PASTOR COMES BACK TO OKLAHOMA CITY

The first Sunday the new pastor was back from Chicago, he appeared on stage with slacks, a sport shirt and coat. After a while he took off his coat and displayed he was dressed in a jogging suit, just like Rick Warren. When the choir came in they were dressed like the choir at Rick Warren’s church, looking like old hippies. The 35 deacons and the 30 staff members of the church were dressed just like Rick Warren too. When the pastor preached, he was sitting on a stool, I’m sure you’re getting the point, just like Rick Warren.

PURPOSE DRIVEN MUSIC

Here is how Rick Warren describes his music:

“At Saddleback Church we are unapologetically contemporary....And right after we made that decision and stopped trying to please everybody, Saddleback exploded with growth .... We are loud. We are really, really loud.... We’re not gonna turn it down....Baby boomers want to feel the music, not just hear it.”

Warren has also said this:

“To insist that all good music came from Europe 200 years ago, there’s a name for that – racism... Encourage members to re-arrange and re-write.”

Rick has also stated:

“There is no such a thing as ‘Christian music,’ only Christian lyrics.”

The baby boomers are now in the age bracket of 41 to 63, and financially they are the ones holding the money in the United States. As a result, they can break or make a church, a new consumer product, including the housing market. Their taste and desire drives the consumer market when it comes to clothing, automobiles, furniture, etc. When this new type of music was introduced to the Oklahoma Church there was much complaining from the congregation. This was solved temporarily by designating a traditional service at 9AM and a modern (rock-n-roll) service at 10:30AM.

PURPOSE DRIVEN BIBLES

Rick Warren’s favorite version of the Bible is “The Message.” It is based upon the corrupt Greek text fabricated by the two British clergymen at the end of the 1800s, who were heavily involved in the occult. All current American Bible versions, except the King James Bible, are based on a text concocted by two renegade priests, who denied Jesus’ divinity and virgin birth. All modern translations of the Bible can be termed as “concept translations,” since they are not translated verbatim, but give the reader a basic idea of the message the writer was trying to convey. By using these sloppy translations, the ministers and leaders in the Purpose Driven movement can make the Bible say things that are not true but fit the doctrine these men are devising. These different Bible versions were now introduced to the Southern Baptist Church in Oklahoma City.

PURPOSE DRIVEN DOLLARS

There is an old saying, “follow the money trail and you will find the boss.” Any venture on this earth must have money to exist and grow, including churches and Christian mission organizations or foundations.

When God set up his church system under the First Covenant, the priests (Levites) were forbidden to hold property or engage in business; they were to be financed by the eleven tribes, in order for them to concentrate on their priestly duties. (Deuteronomy 10:8-9; 12:19; 14:27) This financing system is known as tithing. (Malachi 3:6-12)

The system of tithing was given by God for the express purpose that the priests would not corrupt themselves in greedy business deals. Jesus did not abandon the tithing system. (Matthew 23:23; Luke 11:42) The apostle Paul made it clear that those who preach the Gospel should also live off the Gospel. (1 Corinthians 9:9-14)

In the Dancing around the Golden Calf series, I have shown how wealthy Zionistic Jews financed Cyrus Scofield, who eventually became the father of the American Christian Zionists, also known as Dispensationalists. These American Jews were not saved and totally detested Christianity, yet over a hundred years ago they invested millions of dollars into the development of Christian churches and outreaches. Why? The answer is that they had an agenda to establish a political state of Israel, and in order to do so, they needed the support of evangelical churches. This would later also include Christian radio and television programming. Thus the Jewish leadership was willing to compromise and build up their arch enemy in order to get something much more valuable back in the future.

Cyrus Scofield

History shows that their policy worked and the state of Israel was formed in 1948 with staunch support of American Christians. However, once the goal was achieved, the Jewish Zionistic leadership knew that they needed to trim back Christianity and in time destroy it totally. As a result, since 1948, rising stars within the Christian faith have been selected and targeted.

BILLY GRAHAM – THE PUPPET

One of the most obvious and famous investments took place in the fall of 1949, when newspaper tycoon William Randolph Hearst was given orders to push Billy Graham, who up to this time had been a relatively unknown evangelist with Youth for Christ. Billy Graham held a tent revival in Los Angeles called “Christ for Greater Los Angeles.” The famous quote from Hearst that was sent via teleprinter to his newspaper headquarters in Los Angeles read “Puff Graham.” In less than 24 hours the Associated Press had picked up on it and reporters and photographers swarmed the tent meeting site; from that moment Billy Graham became a household name in the United States.

During the first few years there were no visible dividends for the Devil and the Jewish Zionist leaders, but with time Billy Graham became a great asset in their hands. The fact cannot be denied that Graham was responsible for millions of unbelievers having become born again, I am one of them, but that was a price the Devil and the Jewish Zionists were willing to pay. They also used Graham to bridge the gap between the Roman Catholic Church and the Protestants, by continuing the slow destruction of doctrine, including the introduction of numerous new Bible versions. In his later years, Graham has publicly stated that a person can be a Buddhist or Muslim and still go to heaven.

Billy Graham served his master's well and became a frequent visitor to the White House, advising presidents on foreign policies and also making numerous trips overseas and meeting with national leaders behind closed doors telling them what they should do in order to be favored by the American government. He also promoted the political state of Israel, and since Billy Graham is for Israel, hundreds of thousands of Americans joined forces with him.

Rick Warren is going in the same direction, getting more and more involved in foreign policies and meeting with different Heads of State.

RUPERT MURDOCH

The name Rupert Murdoch keeps popping up when a person begins to dig into the financial dealings of Rick Warren and the Saddleback church. For a number of years I have been telling people that the major Christian publishing houses in the United States have been taken over by wealthy Jews. One of these publishing houses is Zondervan, the one which is responsible for publishing "The Purpose Driven Life."

Following the money trail, I investigated Zondervan. It was founded in 1931, in the suburb of Grandville, Michigan, by two brothers, Pat and Bernard Zondervan. The two boys were nephews to William Eerdmans, who in turn owned a Christian publishing house.

Billy Graham

Pat Zondervan became known as a dispensationalist and a strong opponent of Communism. Hal Lindsey's book "The Late Great Planet Earth," was published by Zondervan and became one of their bestsellers. During the Nixon presidency, Pat and a number of evangelical leaders in the United States received briefings by Henry Kissinger, Nixon's Secretary of State and a German born Jew. I am not going to comment on this but pose a question: Why did President Nixon order these briefings to evangelical Christian leaders?

But Zondervan was not a true evangelical publishing house; it was really the vehicle for the destruction of the Bible in the United States. In 1959, it published the liberal "Berkley Version," followed by the "Amplified" version in 1965, the New International Version (NIV) of the New Testament in 1973 and the complete NIV Bible in 1978. Zondervan has currently published a number of books by New Age writers.

Bernie Zondervan

Zondervan is the publishing house for Rick Warren and, "The Purpose Driven Life," which was released in October 2002. This book has sold more than one million copies, which together with other books by Rick has brought in more than 500 million dollars. As of 2007, some 30 million copies of Warren's books have been sold and the marketing for more sales continues.

Pat Zondervan sold the publishing house in 1988 to a division of Harper/Collins Publishers, which in turn is owned by Rupert Murdoch. Bernard Zondervan had died of cancer in 1966 and Pat died in 1993. This leads us to Rupert Murdoch, a member of Saddleback Church where Rick Warren is the pastor and not afraid to brag that he is Rupert's pastor.

THE HOLDINGS OF RUPERT MURDOCH

Rupert Murdoch was born in Australia in 1931 to wealthy parents Keith and Elisabeth Murdoch. His father was in the newspaper business and controlled a number of them. According to statistics from 2004, Rupert controlled the following corporations: His TV satellite service (BSkyB), which delivers programs to five continents. He owns 175 newspapers and was a fierce competitor to Robert Maxwell, a British Jewish media tycoon, to see who would control the media in Britain. At first it looked like Maxwell was going to crowd him out but because Maxwell was murdered by the Mossad, Murdoch won by default. For more information on Robert Maxwell, see the February 2001 newsletter. Rupert owns 35 television stations in the United States and reaches 40% of the U.S. market. On September 4, 1985, Murdoch became an American citizen in order to satisfy the legal requirement that only American citizens can own television stations in the United States.

Pat Zondervan

Rupert Murdoch

He has taken on Ted Turner and CNN and launched his own cable network, known as the Fox Network. Rupert is a major television mogul in Asia and has news offices in Singapore, China, India, Pakistan, Vietnam and a number of other nations feeding his Asian satellite system. In 2003, Rupert purchased 34% in Hughes Electronics, which operates the DIRECTV satellite system.

In July 2005, Murdoch's main corporation, News Corp, bought Intermix Media Inc., which was the parent company for MySpace.com and a number of other social networking websites. In 2005, Rupert bought IGN Entertainment. Murdoch has also established himself in Turkey through purchasing the Turkish television channel TGRT. In 2007 he purchased Dow Jones, the owner of the Wall Street Journal.

SUMMARY ON RUPERT

Rupert Murdoch is not a lightweight person; he wields enormous power through his television networks, newspapers and publishing of books. It is estimated that Rick Warren has brought in more than 500 million dollars to Zondervan through book sales. Murdoch can make or break a political candidate running for office in the nations which he operates. The catch phrase you hear on Fox News is "fair and balanced," but this is not true, it's just a propaganda phrase repeated over and over again until people think that Fox News is actually fair and balanced. This is nothing but propaganda of the worst kind.

RUPERT MURDOCH IS JEWISH

After having come this far in my investigation of Rupert Murdoch, I wanted to know more about his family and background. No person on earth today can attain such wealth and power unless they are Jewish but all the information about him indicated that he was an Australian.

It turns out that Rupert's mother was the daughter of a wealthy Jewish family in England. Her father's name was Rupert Greene, who was a practicing Orthodox Jew. In 1928, Keith Murdoch married Elisabeth Joy Greene, and the union produced four children, Keith Rupert and three girls. As an adult, Keith Rupert dropped his first name, and made his first name the same as his maternal grandfather. According to Jewish law, if a child has a Jewish mother, the child is considered Jewish. As his wealth accumulated, Keith Murdoch was able to purchase the title "Sir."

Rupert Murdoch became a strong supporter of Zionism, all while trying to hide the fact that he himself was of Jewish origin. He has been using the New York Post newspaper to promote and raise support for the State of Israel.

It got more bizarre as I entered deeper into the murky waters surrounding Rupert Murdoch and Rick Warren. I believe that the Christians in the United States and the world must know what the key players in the world are doing and what harm they are causing.

TRUTH STRANGER THAN FICTION

There is a Zionist network made up of super rich Jews from around the world who are working the financial aspect in the Zionist agenda. Rupert Murdoch is heavily involved with these people and here is just a short sample of their activities:

Murdoch has membership in the following Zionistic organizations: United Jewish Appeal (UJA), Anti-Defamation League (ADL), and the New York based Museum of Jewish Heritage - A Living Memorial to the Holocaust. The UJA is a billion dollar Zionist charity organization to which Murdoch has been very generous. The ADL has a dinner committee which plans fundraising dinners, and Henry Kissinger, Rupert Murdoch and Mortimer Zuckerman are among the key members on this committee. Mortimer Zuckerman is the editor-in-chief of the U.S. News & World Report.

Ariel Sharon was a close friend with Rupert Murdoch long before Sharon became the Prime Minister of Israel. During the Lebanon war in 1982, Murdoch and several of his newspaper editors from New York and London flew to Israel where they were given a special guided tour in an Israeli army helicopter flying over the Golan Heights, the West Bank and settlements in the Gaza strip. The result was a number of nice write-ups in Murdoch's newspapers on the future need for Israel to hold on and develop these territories in order to give security to Israel.

Ariel Sharon

It is noteworthy to remind the reader, that the Israeli government, during this war in Lebanon, was embarrassed by the press releases of the civilian massacres in camps around Beirut, so they invited Jimmy Swaggart and a group from his church to come to Israel and do some special seminars which were later televised in the United States in defense of Israel's actions in Lebanon.

RICK WARREN – RUPERT'S PASTOR

Since Rick Warren claims that he is Murdoch's pastor, it doesn't sound quite right for a Southern Baptist minister being the pastor of a Jew, who has not professed Christ as his Lord and Saviour and is a leading purveyor in promoting pornography and a low moral lifestyle via his media empire; that also includes some of the tabloids you will find at the checkout counters at your local supermarket.

Rupert has not lived a moral and upright life, even according to Judaism. He has been married three times; he married his first wife Patricia Booker in 1956, who was a former airline stewardess. They had one child together, a daughter named Prudence who was born in 1958. He divorced her in 1967 and in the same year married Anna Torv, an Estonian born journalist in training at his newspaper, The Daily Telegraph, in Australia. This marriage produced three children, Elizabeth (born in Australia 1968), Lachlan (born in England 1971) and James (also born in England in 1972). After a bitter divorce in 1999, Anna received a settlement of $1.2 billion in assets. Less than three weeks after the divorce, Rupert now 68 years old married a 30 year old Chinese woman by the name of Wendi Deng. She was working for his Star television network. This third marriage has produced two children so far, Grace (2001) and Chloe (2003), both born in the United States.

It is interesting to note that Wendi Deng is a Chinese citizen, who was running the Star television network out of Hong Kong. Hong Kong has been under Communist control since 1997. Murdoch was given permission to build a 22,000 square foot home for his wife in Beijing (Peking), China. Deng has become one of the major business players in China, this is only possible if a person is lined up with the Communist party and toes the party line.

Wendi Deng

Rupert Murdoch's oldest son Lachland was the chief operating officer for News Corp (the holding corporation for the empire) and the publisher of the New York Post until he fell out of grace with his father and resigned in 2005. His brother James

Lachland Murdoch

James Murdoch

Murdoch was appointed News Corp's chairperson and chief executive for Europe and Asia in December, 2007. According to business news commentators, James is going to take over the reign of the Murdoch Empire because Rupert is going to retire. As of 2007, Rupert is 76 years old.

Compare this to what happened some 107 years ago when Cyrus Scofield was in the prime of his national ministry. In 1902 he was a member of the Lotus Club in New York, which was connected to the Illuminati. Among his good Jewish friends and money backers were Samuel Untermeyer (who held the post as chairman of the American Jewish Committee (AJC); Jacob Schiff, the main financier of the Bolshevik revolution in Russia in 1917; Bernard Baruch, an American Jewish banker; Samuel Gompers, a British born Jew who moved to the United States and became president of the American Federation of Labor (now known as AFL-CIO). Cyrus Scofield laid the foundation of dispensationalism which gave birth to the Christian Zionist Movement.<sup>4</sup> from two sources: sales and wealthy Jews and their foundations. He has a good friend in Rupert Murdoch; a leading Jew in the World Government and Rick is now in the process of destroying Southern Baptist Churches, including other evangelical churches, while the Jewish Zionistic leadership is dancing for joy.

CORPORATION SADDLEBACK

Rick Warren has learned well from his masters, Robert Schuller and Rupert Murdoch. As of 2005, according to statistics released by Warren's public relations office, there are 60,000 pastors from around the world subscribing to his e-mail newsletter. Each week, there are thousands of pastors ordering Warren's $4 sermon outlines. These pastors no longer are praying and seeking God for a message to their congregations, instead, they are fed what the speech writers at Saddleback are concocting. This is very similar to the Jehovah's Witnesses mode of operating. There is also a website content, where services from Saddleback can be downloaded and shown on large screens in churches around the world. Not to mention all the seminars with a hefty price, where tens of thousands of pastors and lay leaders are trained to think, talk, walk, dress and essentially become Rick Warren clones.

In 1949 William Hearst said, "Puff Graham." In the late 1900s Rupert Murdoch said, "Puff Warren."

What did Jesus say?

"No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon."
(Matthew 6:24)

The apostle John said:

"I have written unto you, fathers, because ye have known him that is from the beginning. I have written unto you, young men, because ye are strong, and the word of God abideth in you, and ye have overcome the wicked one. Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world. And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever. Little children, it is the last time: and as ye have heard that antichrist shall come, even now are there many antichrists; whereby we know that it is the last time. They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would no doubt have continued with us: but they went out, that they might be made manifest that they were not all of us." (1 John 2:14-19)

RICK WARREN'S VISION

What would Warren like to see happen in the future? Read his words for yourself:

"The greatest challenge churches will face over the next five years is developing and adapting our ministry methods to the massive needs of the 21st century. We can't just keep on 'doing it the way we've always done it.'...We must start thousands of new churches and services. It will take new churches to reach a new generation...We must develop a clear, practical strategy....If we don't, thousands of churches are going to close up for good. This doesn't have to happen...Thousands of pastors and church leaders have attended the Purpose Driven Church seminars...The secret of reaching unbelievers is learning to think like an unbeliever. The problem is, the longer you're a Christian, the less you think like an unbeliever. You have to intentionally learn to think like an unbeliever again...such as changing the way you greet visitors, the style of music you use, the translation you preach from ..."

RICK WARREN IS PREACHING ANOTHER GOSPEL

In a Christian Business Men's Committee newsletter from December 22, 2003, Warren explained what salvation meant to him:

"...What we need most is salvation – so God sent us a Saviour. What is 'salvation'? It's forgiveness for my past,...power to manage my present problems,...and a guarantee for my future."

This kind of thinking is from Robert Schuller, positive thinking. Man is his own saviour. The Bible tells us that it is "Christ in us" not "us in Christ." We are saved from our sins, not from the past; our future is to be with Christ in heaven, not to continue to live on this earth. The more I read what Warren writes, the more I understand why renegade Jews like Rupert Murdoch have no problem hanging around Rick Warren since he has more or less taken Christ out of Christianity.

Warren has carefully crafted protection against people that come against him. On page 164 of "The Purpose Driven Life" he says the following:

"God warns us over and over again not to criticize, compare, or judge each other...Whenever I judge another believer, four things instantly happen: I lose fellowship with God, I expose my own pride, I set myself up to be judged by God, and I harm the fellowship of the church."

Furthermore, Warren requires his church members to sign a covenant in which they promise to protect the unity of the church (pg. 167, The Purpose Driven Life). Fear is injected into people by telling them that they may not question anything that happens at Saddleback; unity must be protected at all costs. If someone breaks this ungodly oath, Warren says that God will withdraw from them. This is the same tactic used by the Mormons, Jehovah's Witnesses and the renegade minister Jim Jones, who in the early 1980s was able to sway more than 900 people of his congregation to commit suicide together at his Jonestown complex.

In an interview on the "Larry King Live," Rick Warren likened biblical fundamentalists to Muslim extremists and atheistic secularists. This is what he said:

"There are all kinds of fundamentalists, Larry, and they are all based on fear. There are Christian fundamentalists. There are Muslim Fundamentalists. I've met some Jewish fundamentalists. You know that there are secular fundamentalists. They're all based on fear. Secular fundamentalists are afraid of God."

Warren uses very clever propaganda and puts fear in the rank and file of his followers if they try to defend biblical truth by labeling them as fundamentalists who should be compared to crazed Islamic suicide bombers calling for jihad (holy war). I have studied the tactics of Adolf Hitler and Joseph Stalin and how they dealt with their opposition and I see no difference with what Rick Warren does by demonizing any person who opposes him.

It gets worse. In an appearance before the Pew Forum in May 2005, Rick Warren predicted a "New Reformation" or a "Third Great Awakening" for America:

"You know, 500 years ago, the first Reformation with Luther and then Calvin, was about beliefs. I think a new reformation is going to be about behavior. The first Reformation was about creeds; I think this one will be about deeds...The First Reformation actually split Christianity into dozens and then hundreds of different segments. I think this one is actually going to bring them together. Now, you're never going to get Christians, of all their stripes and varieties to agree on all of the different doctrinal disputes and things like that, but what I am seeing them agree on are the purposes of the church..."

Last week I spoke to 4,000 pastors at my church who came from over 100 denominations in over 50 countries. Now, that's widespread. We had Catholic priests, we had Pentecostal ministers, we had Lutheran bishops, we had Anglican bishops, we had Baptist preachers. They're all there together and you know what? I'd never get them to agree on communion or baptism or a bunch of stuff like that, but I could get them to agree on what the church should be doing in the world."

Rick Warren is a paid piper promoting a One World Church that will control the religious thinking of all people someday. He is doing a great job for his Jewish Zionist handlers and I'm sure they are very pleased with this man.

In an interview on July 21, 2003 with USA Today, Rick Warren refers to Billy Graham as his model. Warren said:

"I'm not going to get into a debate over non-essentials. I won't try to change other denominations. Why be divisive?"

Bruce Ryskamp, president of Zondervan Publishing House and a spokesperson for Rupert Murdoch summed up perfectly what the Zionist Jews think of Rick Warren:

“The Purpose Driven Life is more than a bestseller; it’s become a movement.”

BUILDING ON THE YOUTH

As I have studied world history for the last 40 years, I have seen a common denominator in all revolutionary movements and dictatorships. The leaders in these groups all know that “you can’t teach an old dog new tricks.” Rick Warren is following the same path as other leaders in the past, bypassing the old-timers and focusing on the youth.

When President Ronald Reagan busted the Air Traffic Controller union back in the early 1980s, the whole nation sat back in a shock. A federal rule prohibited the union from going on strike, and when they proclaimed a strike, the president with a stroke of his pen fired the entire network of air traffic controller and replaced them with supervisors and military controllers. New people were hired and a rapid training program was set up, so that in a short time, the Federal Air Traffic Control System was up and running.

This is precisely how Rick Warren is training pastors and church leaders in his seminars: Get rid of the opposition! This is step six in his development plan on how to “deal with the opposition.” Here is how he explains it in his seminars:

“Be willing to let people leave the church. And I told you earlier the fact that people are gonna leave the church no matter what you do. But when you define the vision, you’re choosing who leaves. You say, ‘But Rick, yes, they’re the pillars of the church.’ Now, you know what pillars are. Pillars are people who hold things up...And in your church, you may have to have some blessed subtractions before you have real additions.”

Warren and his handlers know that solid Bible believers who have walked with God for many years are not going to accept the new music, the bastard Bibles and a new doctrine. They also know that it doesn’t matter how many seminars they give for the old timers, they’re just not going to buy into it. Thus, there is only one plan, force the old timers to leave through dirty church politics.

One important thing that Warren neglects to mention to his wannabe clones is that the rigid old timers they are trying to force out are the tithers and financial supporters in the church. For the most part, young people are selfish and do not tithe. As a result, many small churches which are infected with the Purpose Drive virus do not survive. When these unyielding pillars are gone, there is no income and the church eventually folds. This is precisely why Rupert Murdoch and his Jewish friends are investing their money into the Rick Warren Corporation, destruction of the churches.

The Southern Baptist Church in Oklahoma did not fare well once the Purpose Driven virus was forced upon the church. At the time the virus hit the church, it had a membership between three to four thousand people. It is now a shadow of its past, and in order to save the church and save his salary, the pastor has gone back to a more traditional type of service. But the damage is done, people were offended and hurt and many of them will not darken a church door again, which is another victory for the Devil.

WHAT’S NEXT FOR RICK WARREN?

Rick and his wife Kay have set up three foundations in order to avoid being hit with huge tax payments. By giving back his salary for the last 25 years to the Saddleback Church, he and his wife avoided paying a huge sum for taxes, and thus they were able to save that money in the corporation, which in turn generates more money in the future.

Foundations have been used by the rich and famous for a long time in the United States, and the beauty of it is that a foundation does not pay any taxes as long as it is a charitable non-profit organization. However, the people working for the foundation can draw salaries, be furnished with homes, cars, airplanes, security services, clothing and food. This is how the Mormon hierarchy lives. If a foundation is declared to be a church, the IRS cannot ask for any financial reports. Thus, the television evangelists and a number of other unscrupulous Christian leaders have their foundations and live high on the hog.

One of the Warren foundations is geared toward social work for people with AIDS and to train pastors how to deal with people with AIDS.

Rick and Kay are part of the One Campaign to reduce world hunger and then there is his latest project the P.E.A.C.E. Plan, urging every local church to be involved in planting churches, fighting poverty and AIDS, and promoting education. There is no talk about presenting these people with the Gospel, telling them that Jesus is the only way and that if you do not accept Jesus Christ as your personal Saviour, you will end up in hell and later the Lake of Fire. According to Warren, in order to communicate with a heathen, you have to live and act like one. This doctrine is not found any place in the Bible but it is a standard text in the Devil's manual for backslidden preachers.

WHAT ABOUT CHARLES STANLEY?

In Touch Ministries was founded and currently led by Pastor Charles Stanley. It is the biggest outreach ministry in the entire Southern Baptist Convention. Pastor Stanley not only is blanketing the United States with his television broadcasts and radio programs but he is reaching a number of nations around the world.

I have been watching and listening to his Sunday morning services for several years and I haven't seen any deviation from the typical conservative Southern Baptist positions. However, I do have the following complaints about him: He is not a "King James Bible only" preacher and likes to use other versions to a large extent. He is into idolatry like most Christian preachers and does not understand the pagan customs in Christmas, Halloween, Valentine's Day, St. Patrick's Day and the Easter Egg hunts on the resurrection day of Jesus.

Charles Stanley

Charles Stanley was the president for the Southern Baptist Convention from 1984-86 so he is seasoned in church politics. Some of the former convention presidents made statements about Jewish people and their need to receive Christ with the result that they were forced to publicly recant their statements and apologize to the Jewish community. As a result, Stanley never speaks about Jews and their need to receive Christ; he simply does not talk about this subject, making him safe and acceptable to the Jewish Zionistic leadership. He does not receive good or bad press reports from the Jews, and is not officially on the radar of the ADL and other Jewish watchdog groups. However, there is no doubt in my mind that the Jewish leadership of the World Zionist Movement have done an in-depth investigation of In Touch Ministries and how to destroy it or take control of it once Stanley is no longer able to run it. Remember, Charles Stanley was born in 1932 and will be 76 years old in 2008, so it is just a matter of time before he steps down.

CHARLES STANLEY'S SUCCESSOR

This brings us to his son, Andy Stanley. Andy was born in 1958 and will be 50 years old in 2008. For a number of years he was on the ministry staff at his father's church until he broke away in the 1990s and founded his own ministry, North Point Ministries. Andy is a baby boomer and pastors three churches with an average attendance of 21,000 people per week. His three churches are North Point Community Church, Buckhead Church and Browns Bridge Community Church. Large high definition screens are used to carry the live broadcast from one church to the other two. In addition, Andy and his staff have started 14 new churches in different places in the United States.

Andy Stanley

When Charles Stanley is away from First Baptist Church in Atlanta, the pulpit, most of the time, is filled by his son. Andy looks and dresses a lot like Rick Warren, he even likes to sit on a stool and preach just like Warren. In spite of these similarities, I have not been able to confirm whether or not Andy is part of the Purpose Driven program. However, Andy is moving in the waters of what is called the "Emerging Churches," which is a hybrid of Bill Hybels' theology and outlook on what a Christian Church should be today. In an article from the USA Today in 2007, they say the following:

"...Andy Stanley, senior pastor of North Point Ministries in Atlanta, suggested that churches should not focus solely on converting people, as has been the emphasis for generations..."

This is what Andy said:

"If we were able to rewrite the script for the reputation of Christianity, I think we would put the emphasis on developing relationships with non-believers, serving them, loving them, and making them feel accepted. Only then would we earn the right to share the gospel."

If Andy Stanley takes over In Touch Ministries when his father steps down, there will be a major policy shift. Just like in the Purpose Driven Churches, the pillars supporting the ministry would either have to change their Biblical doctrine or be removed. Most likely a majority of the viewers would stop supporting the ministry since they cannot accept this renegade doctrine.

I am sure that if Andy takes over in the future, Jewish financiers would be more than happy to step in and shore up the finances of the ministry, since it would be in the interest of the Zionist movement to weaken and destroy any remaining conservative fundamental King James Bible thumping Christians. After all, Andy is not out trying to evangelize the heathens but cultivate and be their friend. If they approve, Andy will feel that he has earned the right to share the Gospel with them; he might do so but in a seeker-friendly (churchianity) setting.

To put it bluntly, Charles Stanley is calling for sinners to be saved and keep people from going to hell while his son Andy is trying to make the sinner feel good on his way to hell. The question is, how smart is Charles Stanley and is he willing to lay aside his emotions and block his son Andy from taking over the ministry?

HOW CLOSELY ARE JEWS WATCHING THE CHRISTIANS?

In closing this newsletter, I want to insert a short article found in the Sacramento Bee during the month of December, 2007. Read it and let it speak to you.

Jews seek meeting with reporter

Published 12:00 am PST Friday, December 7, 2007

SACRAMENTO – Jewish Federation of the Sacramento Region leaders said Thursday they want to meet with Channel 3 reporter Adrienne Bankert, in the wake of comments she made about Jews in a recent talk to students at Sacramento State.

“What we’re going to try to do is have a personal meeting,” said Michal Kohane, executive director of the Jewish Federation of the Sacramento Region.

Kohane said they want to meet with Bankert to try to educate her.

Bankert told a Christian organization on the California State University, Sacramento, campus that she has “never met a poor Jewish person ever in my life” and opined about how Jews founded Hollywood and were prominent in banking.

She later issued a statement, saying in part, “I apologize if anyone was offended by my remarks.”

WHAT CAN YOU DO?

You have just read an introduction to another apostate movement called, “The Purpose Driven Life.” Many of you reading this newsletter have heard about it but do not know much about it. I was in the same position until I read “Deceived on Purpose” by Warren Smith. I decided that I needed more education, and when Noah Hutchings book was sent to us for review, I read it and realized that the denomination I was raised in and with whom I hold my Gospel license and ordination papers is being destroyed from within by a spiritual cancer.

My recommendation is that you purchase these two books and set aside at least two weeks to read them and take notes. Take the information you have been given in this newsletter and look through search engines on the Internet, you will find to your horror that what I have told you is true.

Once you have been educated, you can pray fervently and ask God to destroy this movement. You will also be able to warn people about it and ask anyone involved in this movement if they are willing to look at the facts, see what the Bible says, and then get out of it. There is also the possibility that you are a member of a Purpose Driven church and have not understood with what you are involved, especially if you are a younger person. Educate yourself and make a decision based on facts, not emotions.

Rick Warren’s Purpose Driven Life is a demonic driven program and it is just as deceptive and captivating as Mormonism or the Jehovah’s Witnesses. Education and spiritual warfare against this doctrine is the only answer. Look at these Bible references:

“Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils; Speaking lies in hypocrisy; having their conscience seared with a hot iron;” (1 Timothy 4:1-2)

“For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ. And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light. Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works.” (2 Corinthians 11:13-15)

“I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed.” (Galatians 1:6-9)

DO YOU HAVE AN EAR WITH WHICH TO HEAR?

POSTSCRIPT

The following article on Bill Hybels and Willow Creek came across my desk as I was putting the finishing touches on this newsletter. It confirms what I wrote previously earlier in the newsletter. There are two videos referenced, use the following link if you wish to view them.

Willow Creek Repents?

October 18, 2007

Why the most influential church in America now says “We made a mistake.”

Few would disagree that Willow Creek Community Church has been one of the most influential churches in America over the last thirty years. Willow, through its association, has promoted a vision of church that is big, programmatic, and comprehensive. This vision has been heavily influenced by the methods of secular business. James Twitchell, in his new book Shopping for God, reports that outside Bill Hybels’ office hangs a poster that says: “What is our business? Who is our customer? What does the customer consider value?” Directly or indirectly, this philosophy of ministry—church should be a big box with programs for people at every level of spiritual maturity to consume and engage—has impacted every evangelical church in the country.

So what happens when leaders of Willow Creek stand up and say, “We made a mistake”?

Not long ago Willow released its findings from a multiple year qualitative study of its ministry. Basically, they wanted to know what programs and activities of the church were actually helping people mature spiritually and which were not. The results were published in a book, Reveal: Where Are You?, co-authored by Greg Hawkins, executive pastor of Willow Creek. Hybels called the findings “earth shaking,” “ground breaking,” and “mind blowing.”

If you’d like to get a synopsis of the research you can watch a video with Greg Hawkins here. And Bill Hybels’ reactions, recorded at last summer’s Leadership Summit, can be seen here. Both videos are worth watching in their entirety, but below are few highlights.

In the Hawkins’ video he says, “Participation is a big deal. We believe the more people participating in these sets of activities, with higher levels of frequency, it will produce disciples of Christ.” This has been Willow’s philosophy of ministry in a nutshell. The church creates programs/activities. People participate in these activities. The outcome is spiritual maturity. In a moment of stinging honesty Hawkins says, “I know it might sound crazy but that’s how we do it in churches. We measure levels of participation.”

Having put all of their eggs into the program-driven church basket you can understand their shock when the research revealed that “Increasing levels of participation in these sets of activities does NOT predict whether someone’s becoming more of a disciple of Christ. It does NOT predict whether they love God more or they love people more.”

Speaking at the Leadership Summit, Hybels summarized the findings this way:

Some of the stuff that we have put millions of dollars into thinking it would really help our people grow and develop spiritually, when the data actually came back it wasn’t helping people that much. Other things that we didn’t put that much money into and didn’t put much staff against is stuff our people are crying out for.

Having spent thirty years creating and promoting a multi-million dollar organization driven by programs and measuring participation, and convincing other church leaders to do the same, you can see why Hybels called this research “the wake up call” of his adult life.

Hybels confesses:

We made a mistake. What we should have done when people crossed the line of faith and become Christians, we should have started telling people and teaching people that they have to take responsibility to become 'self feeders.' We should have gotten people, taught people, how to read their bible between service, how to do the spiritual practices much more aggressively on their own.

In other words, spiritual growth doesn't happen best by becoming dependent on elaborate church programs but through the age old spiritual practices of prayer, bible reading, and relationships. And, ironically, these basic disciplines do not require multi-million dollar facilities and hundreds of staff to manage.

Does this mark the end of Willow's thirty years of influence over the American church? Not according to Hawkins:

Our dream is that we fundamentally change the way we do church. That we take out a clean sheet of paper and we rethink all of our old assumptions. Replace it with new insights. Insights that are informed by research and rooted in Scripture. Our dream is really to discover what God is doing and how he's asking us to transform this planet.

QUESTIONS FOR WILLOW CREEK

- What about the thousands of people that were led astray during the 30 years and ended up in hell?
- What does Willow Creek have to say to them as they burn in hell?
- Is it fair for God to forgive Bill Hybels and count his victims as "collateral damage?"

We'll have the answers and more at the Great White Throne Judgment.

TAKING CONTROL OF YOUR LIFE

by John S. Torell

This series seeks to explain how God designed man and addresses the need for Christians to know how evil spirits will cleverly stimulate their body's five senses. Many times you will hear teachings on how to deal with evil spirits and cast them out, but have you ever been told how to prevent them from gaining access in the first place?

All people are affected by the senses of sight, touch, smell, taste and hearing, but the majority of them don't know that these senses are also used by demons to trigger our emotions. As a result, many people are ruled by their emotions, never having learned to guard their five senses from demonic attacks. Emotions have no intelligence whatsoever, but people still allow them to rule their lives. If you can learn to control the five senses and guard these entrance points, you can destroy the works of the Devil in your life.

Victory is only possible by making the right choice as each probing attack comes along. Understanding this biblical truth will help you in taking control of your life.

THE PURPOSE OF MIRACLES

by Charles Thorell

When God steps in and intervenes in our lives, we call it a miracle. God uses miracles for a variety of reasons. He will use them to challenge our faith, deliver us from harm, and prove His power.

We know that when Jesus walked on this earth, He performed many miracles, but that was not the sole reason why He came. Jesus used miracles for the express purpose of accomplishing His goal in providing atonement for mankind.

Miracles today are a benefit of the Salvation we receive and serve to confirm the Word we preach. They can be used on a daily basis to show the power of God to unbelievers and to build up the faith of Christians around us.

The greatest miracle happens every day on this planet as people hear the Gospel message and make Jesus Christ their Lord and Savior! This is God's ultimate purpose in performing miracles.

The Truth about Christmas

Christmas always comes at the end of each year. It's the time of the year when people dress up their houses with lights, decorate a tree and buy gifts for each other. There is generally a spirit of good will towards man and many people will celebrate this holiday without truly knowing the reason.

But have you ever thought about why we celebrate Christmas? Why is a Christian holiday popular with unbelievers? Where did Christmas and its traditions come from? How do Jesus and Santa Claus fit into Christmas? There is much we do in ignorance without giving it a second thought. In this booklet, we explain the origin of Christmas and how it has become synonymous with Jesus' birthday.

As we wait for Jesus to return, the power of the antichrist growing and the pressure to conform to the events of the world also becomes stronger. As a result, many pastors and churches today are not taking a stand against pagan holidays and negligent of informing Christians to the truth. The articles herein have been written after extensively searching the Scriptures. Please read this booklet and let God speak to you through His Word.

The Baptism with the Holy Spirit

R.A. Torrey said it was a great turning point in his life when he decided the baptism with the Holy Spirit was an experience for today and set about obtaining it.

He said the Bible, if carefully studied, will give us a view of this wondrous blessing that is perfectly clear and remarkably definite. In clear and simple language Torrey teaches:

- What the baptism with the Holy Spirit is and what it does
- Its necessity for the believer
- How this experience can be obtained
- The need for re-filling with the Holy Spirit
- How spiritual power is lost.

"...It is quite possible to have something, yes much, of the Spirit's presence and work in the heart and yet come short of that special fullness and work known in the Bible as the baptism of filling with the Holy Spirit."

We are pleased to offer the following Scripture Song albums. It is Christ centered music that will draw the mind of the listener to the Creator of all things and be an encouragement against sin. There is a tremendous power music can have for good.
