RESURRECTION LIFE OF JESUS CHURCH

8341 Fair Oaks Blvd,
Suite B
Carmichael, CA 95608

Service: Sunday 10:30 AM

John S. Torell, Sr. Pastor
Charles Thorell, Pastor

We are a Bible centered group of believers desiring to grow in the full knowledge of Jesus Christ without compromise to His Word.

"If sinners will be damned, at least let them leap to hell over our bodies. And if they will perish, let them perish with our arms around their knees, imploping them to stay. If hell must be filled, at least let it be filled in the teeth of our exertions, and let not one go there unwarned and unprayed for."

THE CORNER

Dear Friends,

The newsletter is late in getting out this month due to a number of factors that consumed our time. We are a ministry with a very small staff that operates on the local and international level. At times it can be frustrating as we want to do so much when there is so much tumult everywhere in the world but people are hurting and in need of help at the local level too. It is almost never convenient when someone asks for help. However, it is a privilege to serve Jesus Christ, the King of kings, and further His kingdom on earth.

The latter part of September and October was an extremely busy time at the church building to run cables, install the equipment and begin training on the new equipment for the web cast. It used to be that one person would run the audio in the sound booth but now it takes three. Progress has been slow because we are still waiting for two components but we are training on a weekly basis. We have made several test videos and are currently working out some problems that cropped up. I don't have a date to offer you but it is my desire to see the web cast up and running within two weeks of receiving the final components. The web site is becoming more and more active as we continue to use it to post articles, sermon outlines and MP3 files and soon we will be adding video too. People will be able to watch the web cast live on Sunday mornings and then download the video later in the week.

Pastor John and Aina were able to take some time off to rest and recuperate in the middle of September. While they were on vacation, John wrote part two of the series on genetically modified organisms. In the interest of producing a newsletter that is not filled with fluff, we had to wait while portions of the article were confirmed for accuracy and it took a little longer than expected. We are also including a write up on the current world economic crisis and its lasting effects that are leading us to the time of the Antichrist.

Finally, I want to encourage you not to be disheartened about all of the evil around us. The two major political parties have offered us terrible choices for the presidency and the homosexuals in California are pushing hard to keep their newly court recognized right to marry from being overturned by the will of the people. It seems that we are faced with corruption, immorality and conflict everywhere. It's easy to get discouraged and filled with despair but don't forget the impact that just one godly prayerful person can have. Elijah was a man "subject to like passions as we are" but he believed in the power of prayer and earnestly asked the Lord to stop the rain. (1 Kings 17:1-7; James 5:13-18)

Never underestimate the power of prayer to change the status quo! Elijah didn't and this was before all of his recorded miracles. He was an unknown man until God activated him. He went through a lot of trials; some he passed with flying colors and others he failed. But he learned to completely trust and rest upon God. That is my encouragement to you; don't ever lose sight of who you are and the power you wield when you get on your knees to speak with Almighty God!

May God richly bless you today,

Charles Thorell

GENETICALLY MODIFIED ORGANISMS

Part 2: Vaccines and Pharmaceutical Drugs

A Report by John S. Torell

As I dug into this subject, it became clear to me that the three items mentioned in the headline above cannot be treated separately, since they are intertwined through the different international mega corporations operating in this field.

VACCINES

Since people have different backgrounds and levels of education, I am going to do a short background teaching on the human body and how it functions before I begin talking about vaccines. We will start with the creation by God.

The universe is held together by the force of gravity, with each star and planet spinning around themselves and solar systems at the same time moving in a circular motion around a center point. Solar systems are clustered together in galaxies, which in turn are moving at a tremendous speed in a circular movement. Gravity and rotation is what makes the universe stable. Man doesn't really know what the force of gravity really is any better than we understand electricity. We can calculate each force, and do all kinds of designs with them, but man still doesn't possess the knowledge of what it really is. However, the Bible gives us the answer; it is the power of God (raw energy) that is continually pumped into the creation and holding it together.

"God, who at sundry times and in divers manners spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets, Hath in these last days spoken unto us by his Son, whom he hath appointed heir of all things, by whom also he made the worlds; Who being the brightness of his glory, and the express image of his person, and upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had by himself purged our sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high..." (Hebrews 1:1-3)

THE EARTH

The earth can be likened to a giant space ship spinning around itself and at the same time rotating around the sun. God did not build a rigid outside shell around the earth; instead, He is using gravity to hold things stable on the earth. The mass of gas that we call air is held in place by gravity so that it doesn't leak into outer space. This is an engineering feat that man cannot duplicate.

Since God wants his creatures, including man, to be able to move around on the earth, he created bodies, which are capable of overcoming the force of gravity. Each created body has a built in set of motors which we call muscles. No motor can run without energy, so God then designed each creature with a fuel processor to supply the motors with energy. Just like in an automobile, God had to create a cooling system, a toxic removing system, and an air intake system to supply the motors with oxygen. In modern automobiles the entire engine system is run by a computer that measures the air temperature, moisture, the demand for power and then calculates how much fuel to inject into the cylinders. The system in the automobile is run by electricity.

The living bodies God made for the earth are vastly superior compared to what man can make; first of all, our bodies are made of living tissue and each has a computer (small capacity for a fruit fly and large capacity for a human being). Since God is using living cells, it is not enough to have electricity for each body, but there is organic chemical guidance with sensors to make sure that the entire system is working well.

The food processing unit in a human body is another marvelous engineering feat where the raw material (food) is run through a crusher (mouth) and injected with an alkali liquid containing enzymes (saliva) to begin the breakdown of the raw material.

Inside this crusher on the tongue are millions of sensors that tell the computer (brain) if the raw material tastes good, if it is harmful to the body, and also help propel the raw material through the crusher. This information is sent to the computer, which in turn passes this information on to the soul, which is the spiritual part of the body.

Once the crusher is finished, the processed material is now forced into a tube that is lined with motors (muscles) and forces the material to enter the acid boiler (stomach). Hydrochloric acid (HCl) and enzymes are then injected into the boiler to further break down the raw material. Sensors make sure that the temperature is just right and that the acid level is according to design. When the material is dissolved into a liquid form, it is ejected into a soft pipe system (small intestines). This is essentially where all digestion of nutrients and vitamins occurs.

Neutralizers are injected to process the liquid material from an acid base to an alkali solution. Inside the soft pipe system are living microbes (friendly bacteria), which further break down any existing fibers. The walls of the pipe system are full of sensors and intake valves where the nutrients of the liquid are sucked up and run by small trucks (red blood cells and the lymphatic system) to the billions of cells that make up the body. As the liquid is emptied of useful nutrients, it is slowly progressing through the pipeline system where it will end up in the colon for the final processing. What's left of the liquid is then moved through a dryer in the colon, which will remove water, and is then circulated back into the blood system. Sensors make sure that the residue is not too liquid (diarrhea) or too dry (constipation). Motors (muscles) on the outside of the colon compact the waste material and deliver it to a holding place at the end of the colon. When this holding place gets full, sensors will alert the brain that it is time to make a dump and the brain in turn informs the soul that it is time to go to the bathroom and take care of this chore.

Note that the person (soul) is only responsible to put raw material into the crusher and make sure it is swallowed. The rest is handled automatically by the computer, and it is not until a dump is required, that the person has to act. If a person is exposed to extreme stress, the computer will initiate a bowel and bladder emptying and there is nothing the person can do about it. This is common when a soldier is exposed to heavy combat for the first time.

In order for the body to function, there must be plenty of water, and again there are sensors in the body that will tell a person when it is time to take in water (this is called thirst). Most people are very sloppy in heeding this message from the computer, and many times it will furnish the body with different kinds of soda drinks, which do contain water, but also a number of toxins, which give the food processor a difficult time.

There are three process units in the body which handle liquid waste, two kidneys and one liver. These units are run by sensors and handled directly by the computer; the only cooperation from the person is to make sure that water is supplied and to go to the nearest bathroom and empty out the container when the waste container for water (bladder) is full.

There are two liquid systems in the human body; one is the blood system, which has a circulation pump called the heart. The second is the lymphatic system and it does not have a pump but is totally dependent upon the moving of muscles to produce a flow. A person that is sitting still and moving very little will be in danger of developing toxins in the lymphatic system.

Just like there is waste in a combustion engine, so it is with all the cells in the body. Each one must have water, nutrients and oxygen; and when the cell is using these supplies, there will be a waste product. The toxins are sent to the liver and the carbon dioxide is sent to the lungs to be disposed off. When God created the lungs for a human being, He made them to have dual controls. We can manually control the breathing but most of the time we let breathing be handled by the computer. Again, there are millions of sensors in the body that measure the oxygen level, and when the person is starting to use muscles, the sensors will then tell the computer to increase the air intake and also increase the RPM for the heart, which will beat faster.

God purposely designed the physical body in such a way, that when we are awake, the body is not able to keep up with removing waste and toxins. Thus, man was made to be awake for 16 hours at a time, but then must take a rest period when all but essential systems are shut down so that the body can rejuvenate itself.

Now let us look at the human computer, our brain. This is a super computer that man can never match regardless how many advancements are made. This computer has "ports" for the soul (a spirit entity) and the spirit for the born again Christian. Thus, the spirit world and the physical world meet in the computer.

Part of the computer automatically regulates the physical body and cannot be accessed by the person. Other parts of the computer contain memory, reasoning power, process information from life and from God, the ability to think and create, to experience pleasure in the form of food, sexual encounters, friendships, to talk, sing and to create music, etc. The computer is made of living cells, which must be nourished and taken care of constantly.

The human soul can disturb the function of the computer if the soul is troubled with unforgiveness, anger, strife, bitterness, living in sin, etc. The "storm" in the soul will create electrical surges which will upset the chemical balance in the body and cause it to malfunction. It is important to note that if evil spirits (demons) are present in the body, they can also create havoc in the body.

God has created an immune system in the human body that is able to reject and destroy all invading microbes and viruses, but if the electrical or chemical balance of the body is compromised, the immune system will weaken and sickness will come to the body. Sin and conflict will affect the immune system.

The human body has a very complicated electric grid (nervous system) through which electricity flows (command signals and response from sensors). The wiring is made up of neuron cells linked to each other and insulated with a coating of cholesterol. By using different frequencies, a wire in the human body can carry multiple signals at the same time.

The human body is governed by electricity and chemical processes. The health and the well being of a human being will be compromised if the electric voltage is too low or high. The same will also apply if chemical agents are released into the body which upset the chemical balance in the body.

Toxins will cause chemical reactions in the body that disrupt the design of the body functions and cause malfunction known as sickness. Since the body function is based upon organic chemistry, it doesn't take a large number of toxins to change the chemical balance and send the wrong signals to the cells.

God's design of the human body is a marvel of engineering. A cell only lives for so long but most cells are complete and will duplicate themselves. When a person is seven years old, all of the cells in the body have been replaced and they have a new body. The same cycle is repeated at the age of 14 and 21. But after the third cycle, the body is not able to replace cells at the same speed, and this is called the aging process. The older we get, the longer it takes to replace cells and it will show up in wrinkles, grey hair, stiff limbs, etc. However, God has promised us 120 years on this earth if we walk with Him in obedience and holiness; He can supernaturally maintain the body as He did for Abraham, Sarah, Moses, Joshua and Caleb, etc.

"And the LORD said, My spirit shall not always strive with man, for that he also is flesh: yet his days shall be an hundred and twenty years."
(Genesis 6:3)

There are two more miracles from God that I want to share with you. The first one is that He as the designer told us what kind of raw material we should eat in order for the fuel processor to produce the right kind of fuel that the cells can use. You will find His instructions in Genesis 1:28-31 and Leviticus 11:1-47. The death on the cross by Jesus paid for our sins but His resurrection didn't change the physical world or human bodies. Everything living is the same as it was from the beginning. The Devil's lies for the last 1,900 years have caused sickness to increase among humans.

The second miracle I want to share with you is when God created man, animals, birds, fishes and insects; He designed cells to burn oxygen with sugar and produce carbon dioxide as waste. However, all living vegetation is breathing in carbon dioxide and exhaling oxygen during daylight hours. The earth is a closed system (space craft) and raw material on the earth won't be resupplied. Thus, God created a recycling program second to none, which makes sure that everything is balanced and can last for thousands of years. The water you and I drink today is the same water that existed at the beginning of creation; it is constantly being recycled.

WHAT VACCINES ARE DOING TO THE HUMAN BODY

Very few people know that vaccines contain a sterilization agent. The common sterilization agent used in most vaccines is "thimerosal." This chemical compound is made by Ely Lilly, one of the biggest pharmaceutical companies in the world. This is a billion dollar business for Ely Lilly since most vaccine producers use thimerosal to sterilize their vaccines.

Think about it, there would be no need for thimerosal if a vaccine was produced in a sterile laboratory. But to have a certified sterilized laboratory costs a lot of money, and since most pharmaceutical companies do not have sterile facilities, it would cost them a fortune to build such laboratories. Thus it is cheaper to produce a "dirty" vaccine and then sterilize it.

THE CHEMICAL MAKEUP OF THIMEROSAL

The following information is taken from True Health, a Bi-Monthly newsletter of Carotec, Inc., in which they quote Dr. Boyd Haley, the chairman of the Department of Chemistry at the University of Kentucky.

"...To understand our topic, here is a technical explanation of thimerosal from an affidavit by Dr. Haley: 'Thimerosal or merthiolate is a derivative of thioisalicylate where ethyl-mercury is attached through sulfur. It is defined as a preservative or anti-microbial in medical use. This anti-microbial action is dependent on thimerosal breaking down releasing ethyl-mercury that can penetrate cell membranes and bind to intracellular enzymes, inhibiting them, and causing cell death. Further, in certain biological environments the ethyl-mercury can further break down releasing mercury cation (Hg<sup>2+</sup> known as mercury vapor)...Both ethyl-mercury and Hg<sup>2+</sup> are very neuro-toxic compounds...'<sup>1</sup>

Mercury is one of the most toxic metals existing on the earth; it has a deadly effect on neuron cells that make up the brain as well as the nerves in a human body. Thus, the pharmaceutical companies are guilty of mass murder, but since these companies have the strongest lobby in the United States and are in bed with the American Medical Association (AMA), they have been able to get away with this crime against humanity. Furthermore, the drug companies in the United States have organized themselves into a lobby organization called Pharmaceutical Research and Manufacturers of America, representing more than 100 corporations. Among them are the vaccine producers Eli Lilly, Pfizer and Merck.

OTHER INGREDIENTS IN VACCINES

Each vaccine contains a number of other chemical additives in addition to the infectious organism targeted. A typical vaccine may contain aluminum, mercury, hydrolyzed proteins, monosodium glutamate (MSG), oils and many complex molecules known as immune adjuvants. Squalene is an immune adjuvant, commonly found in Gulf War veterans. Adjuvants activate the nervous system's special immune cells, the microglia. I am now going to quote Dr. Russell Blaylock, the editor of THE BLAYLOCK WELLNESS REPORT:

"...In case of bystander injury, rather than the immune system directly attacking specific parts of the nervous system via molecular mimicry (that is, mistaking a part of the nerve cell or neuron for a viral or mycoplasmal invader), the immune system is merely doing its job. But in the process, it ends up killing a lot of 'innocent bystanders'- that is, surrounding normal brain cells...

"This occurs because immune cells kill invaders by flooding them with a storm of free radicals. Free radicals are highly reactive particles that destroy everything they encounter, friend or foe. The immune cells generate these free radicals in large numbers.

"Normally, an immune attack on viruses and other organisms occurs rapidly and is quickly terminated. This is why a strong immunity is essential – it minimizes bystander injury....

"These destructive free radicals initially accumulate locally, that is, at the site of the invasion of the organisms. With prolonged immune activation, these free radicals can diffuse far out into the surrounding tissues, and in time can flood the entire body..."<sup>2</sup>

Let me put it in simpler terms: mercury and aluminum create a mechanism that causes the human body's immune system to become over active, thus causing destruction of healthy cells in the human body. Especially vulnerable are neurons (brain and nerve cells), destroying synaptic connections and damaging the outer coverings of nerve fibers. Putting this in different words, brain cells are killed and the coating on the electric wires (nerves) in the body is destroyed, which means that the wire is laid bare and the circuit is shortened. This will result in loss of muscle movement and blocking of electrical signals to different organs in the body. The result is disease like Parkinson's and Alzheimer's.

DATA AND STATISTICS IN CONJUNCTION WITH VACCINES

In 2004 the mandated vaccination program in the United States was 22 inoculations before a child could attend school. Here are some of the most well known vaccinations: Hepatitis B, measles, mumps, chickenpox, and DT&P (Diphtheria, Tetanus, Pertusses, Whooping Cough and Polio).

In the same Blaylock newsletter of May 2004 I quote the following:

"A considerable amount of research indicates that Gulf War Syndrome (GWS), as well as autism, is triggered by combining too many vaccines over too short of time. This error is compounded by numerous other toxic events, especially in Gulf War veterans.

"These events include exposure to pesticides, aspartame breakdown products (artificial sweeteners), combat stress, high intake of food-based excitotoxins (MSG), possible exposure to released nerve agents, and exposure to contaminated vaccines.

"For example, recent studies by Dr. Garth Nicolson, head of The Institute for Molecular Medicine, have disclosed a high incidence of contamination of the anthrax vaccine with mycoplasmal organism. In addition, he has shown a strong correlation between ALS (amyotrophic lateral sclerosis or Lou Gehrig's disease) and this mycoplasmal infection. Recently, Pentagon officials reluctantly admitted to a 200 percent increased incidence of ALS in Gulf War veterans."<sup>3</sup>

From the January/February 2004 newsletter, "True Health," I quote the following:

"...Dr. Haley points out that the thimerosal controversy really got started in the early 1990's because of Gulf War Syndrome:

"The observation was that the French serving in the Gulf War did not get Gulf War Syndrome, and the only people that did get it were those who were vaccinated with American vaccines – the British, the Australians and the Americans. Victims didn't even have to land in the Gulf to get the syndrome, they just had to get vaccinated.

"They have now confirmed that the syndrome people are three times more likely to get ALS or Lou Gehrig's disease than the normal population of age matched people. And they are saying they wonder what it was. In one article they insinuated that it was caused by exposure to chemical warfare, but in Gulf War I, there was no chemical warfare...”<sup>4</sup>

From the May 2004 Blaylock Wellness Report I quote:

“... Despite the fact that the flue vaccine being administered did not even protect against the ‘killer strain,’ people were lining up to get the vaccine, with no knowledge of its known dangers.

“In fact, a recent study conducted by Dr. Hugh Fudenberg, one of the biggest names in immunology, suggests that those who repeatedly get flu shots dramatically increase their risk of developing Alzheimer’s disease. What Dr. H. Hugh Fudenberg (the world’s leading immunogeneticist) found was that those who had five or more flu shots during the period of the study, 1970-1980, had 10 times the risk of developing Alzheimer’s disease than did those who either did not get the vaccine or got it only one or two times. Why would this be?

“He suggests two reasons, mercury and aluminum in the vaccines...”<sup>5</sup>

I continue to quote from the same report:

“...One of the great puzzles of AIDS was how it could result in dementia, when the brain’s neurons were not infected. We now know that a protein particle is shed within each microglia cell and that this triggers chronic activation of the microglia.

“One class of toxins released by these microglial cells includes excitotoxins. These powerful chemicals can excite brain cells to death and are thought to play a role in all forms of neurodegenerative diseases, brain trauma, strokes and meningitis.

“Common forms of excitotoxins include glutamate (as in monosodium glutamate, MSG), NutraSweet or aspartate (as used in aspartame) and quinolinic acid (a metabolic product of serotonin breakdown).

“When chronically activated, microglial cells pour out these excitotoxins in large amounts, destroying neurons, synapses and dendrites, that is, the connections between brain cells. When these same excitotoxins are consumed in foods and drinks, even more damage is done. There is ample evidence that these food-based excitotoxins easily enter the brain....

“Viral and mycoplasmal contaminants of these vaccines could spread to family members and initiate similar microglial activation. This is especially so with highly mutated viruses, which would be expected in the Gulf War veteran....

“...Another recent study, conducted by the U.S. Department of Agriculture, found that exposing mice to mercury prior to the infection with coxsackievirus B3, a virus that destroys the heart muscle, greatly increased the mortality, number of pathological injuries seen in the heart muscle and a number of viruses in the heart muscle (viral titer) compared to the virus alone. ...”<sup>6</sup>

LAYMAN’S TERM

If a person has been exposed to a vaccine contamination which includes mercury and aluminum toxins, it will create a chronic destruction of nerve and brain cells. When the person eats out at restaurants or is eating processed food in the form of pizza, fried chicken, hamburgers, French fries etc., these foods are laced with monosodium glutamate (MSG) in order to enhance the taste for the customer. The MSG and other chemical agents added by the restaurants, fast food outlets and the food processors will increase the damage to the brain cells, and in years to come, it will cause a memory loss known today as Alzheimer’s.

In our congregation we have a man, Sotiris Christou, who has been involved in the restaurant business for some 30 years and is currently a wholesaler of food in the San Francisco/Sacramento area. I have discussed the issue of MSG with him and he told me that there are very few restaurants in the United States not using MSG to upgrade the taste of their food products. He told me that the same holds true for all food that is pre-cooked, regardless if it is frozen or in a can.

The sad thing is that it might take 25 to 40 years for Alzheimer’s disease to show up in a person, so most people won’t listen to the danger of eating MSG laced food until it is too late. The attitude of most young people in their 20’s is to reject the information since they are feeling fine; they crave this kind of food since they have been raised on it and cannot imagine changing their life style.

The story is totally different when a person in their 40’s is diagnosed with the beginning stages of Alzheimer’s disease. Now the reaction is of great sadness, grief and anger. How could this happen to me? Why didn’t anyone warn me? Why is the government not doing more research to solve this terrible epidemic? The answer to all these questions is that the U.S. government is well aware of the problem and knows the cause of it. But it is part of a plan that the World Government has designed to decrease the world population and to make sure that people die off in their 60’s so that money can be saved from paying out pensions.

THIS IS WHAT IS WORKING AGAINST US

The average American born since 1960 has received between 17 to 22 vaccine inoculations early in their childhood. Any person serving in the military has received even more inoculations. If you have been taking the touted flu shots every year, you have an enormous combination of mercury, aluminum and other toxins.

In addition, you have been filled with MSG by eating the food sold in supermarkets and served to you in the restaurants. Fast food outlets like KFC, Wendy's, Burger King, McDonalds, Wienerschnitzel, Pizza Hut and Taco Bell are all happy to sell poor quality food. The average American then washes down this toxic food with soft drinks that add more toxins to the body.

If you are a smoker, you should know that every cigarette is laced with more than 700 toxic ingredients in order to keep you addicted. Nicotine is added to what already is in the tobacco to give the smoker a more sustained high. If you add coffee and alcohol to this toxic brew, it is a miracle that so many Americans last as long as they do.

When you go to the dentist to get your teeth fixed, the filling used was mercury amalgam, which leaks mercury vapor into your body for the rest of your life.

We are paying a price. Obesity is an epidemic in the United States and diabetes is striking millions of Americans at younger ages. Diabetes is a food disease which is increasing greatly and overloading our medical facilities.

Cancer and heart attacks are on the rise and millions of Americans are dying in their 40's. The cancer rate in children is also on the rise. And the dark disease of Alzheimer's is striking more and more families. It is a horrible disease that has struck within my family.

Once the person is diagnosed with Alzheimer's, terrible fear grips the person as they plunge into a dark abyss of memory loss and eventually become a living dead person who doesn't know who they are and can't even recognize a close family member. The sick person has to be restrained like a dog, since they will wander off and get into all kinds of trouble; when death finally comes, it is a sweet relief to both the patient and their family. The cost of caring for a person with Alzheimer's is enormous and will destroy the finances of the person and their family.

In the Sacramento area during a time of economic hardship, every major hospital is expanding their facilities; some of them are even doubling their bed capacity because the administrators know something that the general public does not and that is that the Baby Boomers are coming of age. As they become older, they are also getting sicker and sicker. After all, they have been eating the swill spiced with MSG that has been prepared for them by the greedy food and pharmaceutical corporations and washed it down with drinks laced with phosphorus, artificial colors and sweeteners.

WHY HAS THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH NOT SPOKEN OUT?

As a pastor I am qualified to answer this question. When my wife and I turned to Christ in 1965 and joined a Southern Baptist Church, the teaching on food went something like this: "We are now living under grace, the Old Testament does not apply to us any more and it does not matter what we eat; just pray over it, ask God to bless it and eat it." Since we looked up to the pastors and had great respect for them, we accepted this teaching. During our church dinners, there were plenty of pork dishes, and we ate until the grease was running out of our mouths; there was plenty of cake and ice cream loaded with white sugar and we all thought we were living in heaven with all this good food. From time to time I wondered why so many pastors were obese, but these were just fleeting thoughts; after all, they knew the Bible and I was just a young Christian.

I spent three and half years at seminary earning my Master of Divinity degree and there was not one class on nutrition; in fact, there was never a word spoken about food. The same culture in our local church also prevailed at the seminary. Some of our professors got sick with cancer but there was never any mention that it could be food related. Instead, we were told that these men were getting old, it was time for them to die, and to die you must die sick.

I didn't know that you don't have to be sick to die. God can take you home healthy like He did with Moses.

"So Moses the servant of the LORD died there in the land of Moab, according to the word of the LORD. And he buried him in a valley in the land of Moab, over against Bethpeor: but no man knoweth of his sepulchre unto this day. And Moses was an hundred and twenty years old when he died: his eye was not dim, nor his natural force abated." (Deuteronomy 34:5-7)

Being from Sweden, I was raised on pork and shell fish. As an evangelist and later as a pastor, I enjoyed the greasy menu in the Christian churches. You might say that I was in hog heaven. I was totally uneducated when it came to nutrition; I was plain stupid and worked hard to earn my first heart attack. But there was one thing that the Holy Spirit was able to teach me, stay away from vaccinations. Thus, my last vaccination took place in 1962, when I was forced to be inoculated against small pox in order to get a visa to enter the United States.

In the early part of 1976, God sent Bob and Rita Jackson (both are now in heaven) into my life as they confronted my terrible eating habits. For the next ten years they educated me in nutrition and gave me a lot of material to read on the subject so that I woke up.

When I was given the little booklet, "The Truth about Christmas," my theology was jolted as I realized that the moral and practical laws given by God and written in the Old Testament were still valid. There was no change that took place in the body of the pig when Jesus died on the cross.

The church has not spoken out on health because ministerial students are not taught anything about nutrition and vaccinations; they are totally uneducated in this field. As a result, they cannot teach on this subject in church because they love their greasy food and have no desire to change.

"My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge: because thou hast rejected knowledge, I will also reject thee, that thou shalt be no priest to me: seeing thou hast forgotten the law of thy God, I will also forget thy children." (Hosea 4:6)

I must however give credit to the Seventh Day Adventist denomination. They might not have their theology right when it comes to salvation and eating meat but they are well educated when it comes to nutrition and toxins. However, since no one from that denomination ever crossed my path, their knowledge did not reach me until later on.

THE AMERICAN AUTISM EPIDEMIC

As a pastor, I have encountered members in our congregation who have autistic children. When I encountered my first case in the late 1970's, I was totally ignorant of nutrition, chemical reactions from vaccine and thought that autism was a demonic problem. As time progressed and I became educated in this area, it became clear that this was a physical problem caused by toxins.

I am going to quote again from the "True Health," newsletter. This quote is from Dr. Mark Geier; MD, Ph.D., and director of the Genetic Centers of America:

"Dr. Geier made this astounding statement about the numbers of children with autism: 'This is from the Department of Education Data. In the middle 1970's the estimate of autism rate was about 1 in 25,000. In the 80's it was about 1 in 2,500. In the 90's it was about 1 in 250.

Currently (2004) the estimate in the United States is about 1 in 150 and incidentally, that estimate is by Ely Lily who makes thimerosal. This is an enormous rise. It's a meteoric rise, but worse than that, it's not limited to autism. Reading disorders are up 30 fold. speech disorders are up-currently 1 in 8 children in the United States are in special education'...

"Dr. Geier and Dr. Haley say the pandemic of autism is caused by mercury toxicity primarily thimerosal used in childhood vaccines...

"The authorities try to spread the rumor that it's a genetic epidemic, you may have heard that. I'm a Board Certified geneticist and know that there are no genetic epidemics. Never has been. Can't be. It's an oxymoron. An epidemic means a rapid rise in human disease. The fastest known change in genetics is 1% per 100 years...

"Both experts explain that most people appear to have a relatively good mercury removal system in their physiology and biochemistry – which is why more people are not ill or dying due to dental amalgams or vaccines...

"The big rise in autism epidemic occurred around 1990, Dr. Geier explained: What happened in 1990, we added to our routine childhood vaccine schedule which was previously DPT, we added HIB, Thermopolis D and also Hepatitis B. So, we actually tripled the amount of mercury at that moment in the vaccines...

"The mandated vaccine program and exposure to mercury at a young age started in the early 80's and today, we have to add 100 points to the school aptitude test to get the scores up to where it used to be. In other words the average score on your test over the last 18 to 20 years has dropped about 100 points...

"I think Attention Deficit Disorder, may be a mild form of mercury toxicity whereas autism is maybe even a stronger form. We are doing something to our children by this mandated vaccine program and the widespread use of mercury amalgams in dentistry-I say it is injuring the entire intellect of the country.

"Common sense was not applied to vaccine policy. The mandated vaccine policy, at least 2 years ago, was that children in order to go to kindergarten had to take somewhere between 17 and 22 vaccinations before they were allowed to go to school. Now they have decided, without doing any safety tests, to give hepatitis B vaccine to infants on the day they're born...

"Subsequent to that, at one point depending on what state you were in they would take an infant in before he was say 6 months old and they would give that child 4 vaccinations in a single day. Now if that child weighed 10 lbs that would be the equivalent of giving 40 shots to a 100 lb adult. It would be 80 shots if comparing them to a 200 lb person. Toxicity is determined by the weight of the material you're injecting into the person divided by the body weight of the person.

“So, those are two things that are absolutely stupid to do without doing safety tests. And, it was done just to crowd those 22 shots into an infant’s life or small child’s life before he went to kindergarten...”<sup>7</sup>

A MESSAGE TO PARENTS

In this article I have quoted three medical doctors, but if you search on the Internet there will be hundreds of web sites discussing this problem and quoting many other medical doctors and scientists. I did not write this thinking that this is all you need to know, rather, this is written to send you a strong warning and make you aware of the problem. It is up to you to do more research.

If you live in the United States, you still have a choice to refuse vaccinations for your children; doctors and nurses cannot bully you into submission unless you surrender your legal rights as an American citizen. My nephew and his wife have been blessed with three children during the last six years. They would preemptively tell the hospital staff that they didn’t want their child inoculated. Later the nurses would invariably ask them again after the child was born and my nephew would be kind but firm in his refusal. The staff knew the law and had to abide with their decision.

Receiving a vaccination nowadays is like playing Russian roulette. One child out of five will develop autism and their life is ruined. As a parent, are you willing to risk the future of your child and let them grow up mentally retarded because the pharmaceutical companies don’t want to spend money on sterile labs?

As a pastor, I have spent time with parents whose children were stricken with autism. I have seen the deep sorrow in their eyes as they look on their baby and realize that they are retarded and that doctors won’t do anything for them. They would give anything for a chance to relive the past and refuse the vaccinations for that child. I pray that you will never be a parent that will come to that place in your life of eternal regret.

Is it a coincidence that the Ritalin is the drug of choice for treating school children in the United States for attention deficit disorder (ADD)? The drug companies are making a killing selling this drug. First, the parent will pay the drug companies to sell them contaminated vaccines, then they will pay them for another drug to somewhat offset the effect of the first one. How long will it be before the American people wake up and demand justice?

I have lived my whole life without the flu shots and yet I have never had the various strains of the influenza virus that the government predicts ten months in advance. By having a strong immune system, eating healthy according to the Bible, exercising, and most of all, having faith that God is my healer, I am doing just fine. It is also important to live in forgiveness, holding no grudges against other people and not letting the root of bitterness in your heart.

While I am writing this article, I am listening to the commercials on the radio about the coming flu season and how it is time to line up and receive your shot. Given what you have read so far, it would be insane to pay for a harmful injection. Furthermore, have you ever wondered how the drug companies know in advance what kind of flu is going to strike the next year? In previous writings I have told about the war our government is waging on its own people and how new viruses are produced in laboratories and then released in the atmosphere. It’s all about population control and making a huge profit on the backs of the American taxpayers. Jesus told us that we can overcome any attacks on our bodies, if we believe and walk with Him in holiness. This is what I am doing.

“And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature. He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned. And these signs shall follow them that believe; In my name shall they cast out devils; they shall speak with new tongues; They shall take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them; they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover.” (Mark 16:15-18)

THE PHARMACEUTICAL COMPANIES ARE GETTING NERVOUS

On September 18, 2008, the following headline appeared in the San Francisco Chronicle: SCIENTISTS CANCEL CONTROVERSIAL AUTISM STUDY.

“A government agency has dropped plans for a study of a controversial treatment for autism that critics [drug companies] had called an unethical experiment on children. The National Institute of Mental Health said in a statement Wednesday that the study of the treatment – called Chelation -- has been abandoned. The agency decided the money would be better used testing other potential therapies for autism and related disorders, the statement said...”

Chelation removes heavy metals from the body and is used to treat lead poisoning. Its use as an autism treatment is based on the fringe theory [a politically correct term to please the drug companies] that mercury in vaccines triggers autism -- a theory never proved and rejected by mainstream science. Mercury hasn't been in childhood vaccines since 2001, except for certain flu shots."<sup>8</sup>

Carla Johnson is a paid liar for the pharmaceutical corporations because they are scared to death to see a test program like this. Chelation is an old proven method dating back to Germany in the 1930's. It was brought to the United States and has been used by medical doctors at prevention clinics since the late 1970's. I have personal experience with chelation when my parents came to California in the early 1980's and went through 25 liquid intravenous treatments to clear their arteries and detoxify from heavy metals. I have also used oral chelation to clean up my own body. The only side effect I was warned about was that the kidneys could not have any problems, since they would be taxed heavily and that vitamins and minerals would be taken out by the chelation process. I was told to take extra vitamins and fortify myself with potassium and magnesium, etc.

If chelation is available for autistic children, it is very likely that they would be healed or be partially brought to a better condition of life. If this would happen on a large scale, it would be damning evidence against the companies producing vaccines.

THE WONDER DRUG VYTORIN

The following headline and excerpt was reported by the Associated Press:

VYTORIN-CANCER LINK CAN'T BE RULED OUT, DOCTORS SAY

"Munich, Germany – Results so far from three studies of the cholesterol-lowering drug Vytorin are not enough to prove or rule out a possible link to a higher risk of cancer, so the drug should be used with caution until more is known, editors of a leading medical journal urged Tuesday. The New England Journal of Medicine published results online from one study and an analysis or partial results from two others.

"Vytorin is a combination of Merck's Zocor and Schering-Plough's Zetia, a newer type of medicine that lowers cholesterol in a different way.

"The possible cancer risk unexpectedly aroused in July, when Dr. Terje Pedersen of Oslo, Norway, announced preliminary results from a study testing whether Vytorin could prevent damage to the heart's aortic valve from worsening. The drug made no difference in heart attacks, strokes or surgeries related to the valve problem. But doctors saw a greater number of cancer cases in those taking it compared with others given dummy pills...

"Pedersen's study involved 1,873 people in Europe and the United States who were having problems with their aortic valves...

"Of those given Vytorin, 105 developed cancer compared with 70 on placebo..."<sup>9</sup>

I have included excerpts of these reports to build a strong case against the pharmaceutical companies and why they can't be trusted. Most medical doctors are in bed with these companies and will not tell their patients the truth. Thus, it is up to each person to look after himself, plus, the Christian Church should do its utmost to make sure that the people on earth are not exploited and fleeced.

I want to give you the definition for "false truth." This expression was coined by a Pentecostal leader in Sweden, Adrian Holmberg, after he realized "AN EVENT IS TRUE, AS LONG AS IT IS BENEFICIAL TO OUR LIVES TO BELIEVE IN IT!" He further stated this: "...the word 'truth' has been given a value, which is difficult to define. It has received a moral value, which cannot be calculated."

We must face the reality that governments and drug companies are liars; as a matter of fact, there are very few organizations or people who will tell the truth. Sadly, Christian denominations, churches and some of its leaders and people will lie from time to time in order to further their agenda. No wonder that Pilate asked Jesus the following questions:

"Pilate therefore said unto him, Art thou a king then? Jesus answered, Thou sayest that I am a king. To this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth. Every one that is of the truth heareth my voice. Pilate saith unto him, What is truth? And when he had said this, he went out again unto the Jews, and saith unto them, I find in him no fault at all." (John 18:37-38)

TRUTH DEFINED BY JESUS

"Again, ye have heard that it hath been said by them of old time, Thou shalt not forswear thyself, but shalt perform unto the Lord thine oaths: But I say unto you, Swear not at all; neither by heaven; for it is God's throne: Nor by the earth; for it is his footstool: neither by Jerusalem; for it is the city of the great King. Neither shalt thou swear by thy head, because thou canst not make one hair white or black. But let your communication be, Yea, yea; Nay, nay: for whatsoever is more than these cometh of evil." (Matthew 5:33-37)

GIRLS ARE TREATED LIKE CATTLE

According to the men running the world government, girls are future whores, sex slaves, and commodities to be used to keep the young men occupied while they are being groomed to become useful workers or cannon fodder in future wars. Since cervical cancer is spreading rapidly among women, the world leaders decided to develop a vaccine that would be given to them from the ages of 11-26. They chose to do it this way because the vaccine is cheaper to produce than treating a woman for cancer at the hospital.

Merck & Co. Inc. and GlaxoSmithKline were two pharmaceutical corporations chosen to develop and sell the vaccine. Merck is “a global research-driven pharmaceutical company” producing products to improve human and animal health.<sup>10</sup> In 2007 its revenue was $24.2 billion and it employed more than 59,800 persons.<sup>11</sup>

GlaxoSmithKline (GSK) is a British based pharmaceutical company specializing in biological (gene splicing) and healthcare programs. In 2007 their revenue was $40.9 billion and it employed more than 100,000 persons.<sup>12</sup>

These two companies are among the major players in the field of medication, vaccines, biological weapons, human and animal hormones, etc. When you read their product listing you’ll find most of the prescription drugs used by doctors around the world.

Merck’s girl vaccine against cervical cancer is called “Gardasil” and the vaccine by GlaxoSmithKline is called “Cervarix.” Neither of the vaccines has been tested for long term effects. The World Government couldn’t care less about any side effects the vaccines have on the girls as they grow older and come into their child bearing years.

During the last two years, tens of millions of girls and young women have been given the vaccine in the United States and Europe.<sup>13</sup> The drug companies are successfully lobbying different states in the U.S. to mandate girls be vaccinated. The state of Virginia is bluffing parents by stating that it is “mandatory” for girls to be vaccinated by late 2008; 24 other states have legislation pending to also make it “mandatory.” Since the United States constitution guarantees religious freedom, parents have the right to refuse vaccination on religious grounds, which the courts have upheld. Our ministry has issued letters for many years on behalf of concerned parents who do not want their children vaccinated; these letters have been accepted by school authorities and the children were exempted and allowed to attend school.

Even in the UK, the British National Health Service plans to have all 12 year old girls vaccinated by September, 2008. They can do this because the UK does not have a constitution like the United States of America.

The vaccine is not cheap. Gardasil’s list price is $360 for the three-dose series, but with office visits the cost for each girl will run from $400 to $1,000. Young girls are exposed to sexually perverted programs on television, movies and magazines, featuring sleazy women like Madonna, Britney Spears, Paris Hilton and many others, who brag about their sex lives and acting like female dogs in heat. By making free condoms available in their schools, educated to believe in evolution, they have no knowledge of God and are only told that the vaccine is going to save them from cancer. These young girls will be promiscuous and not understand that they are being exploited, abused and treated like breeding sows.

THALIDOMIDE: THE FRANKENSTEIN DRUG

If the Christian church allows the World Government to bury its ugly past and keep historical facts hidden from future generations, the World Government will keep on repeating its atrocities again and again. I want to take you back to 1954 and share with you one of the worst assaults on the human race. I was fifteen years old at that time and remember the horror stories about deformed babies, some born with no arms, missing legs, or had deformed body parts. Since I do not have full knowledge of the destruction by this drug, I am going to use information gleaned from an article from the Official Journal of the American Academy of Pediatrics, written by William A. Silverman and published in 2002.<sup>14</sup>

THALIDOMIDE CREATED IN GERMANY

World War II ended in the month of May, 1945. The cities and factories in Germany were totally wasted and Germany was divided up into four occupation zones: American, British, French and Russian. About two years later the three western zones were merged into what was going to be known as West Germany. The Soviets created their own communistic state, known as the DDR or better known as East Germany. When the Soviet Union was beginning to collapse, it gave up East Germany, and in 1989, the two German states were reunited into one country.

In order to hinder Western Europe from falling into the hands of the Soviets during the Cold War, the United States introduced the "Marshall Plan," named after the American, General George C. Marshall, and billions of dollars were given in aid to rebuild the cities, infrastructures, and factories, particularly in Germany. The latest in technology and equipment was also given to Germany so that ten years after WW II had left Germany nothing but a heap of ruins, the German industry was back, roads were repaired and it was known around the world as the "German miracle." What was not talked about was that this miracle was paid for by the American taxpayers.

One of the industries that benefited from this lavish outpouring of money was a small pharmaceutical company by the name of Chemie Grunenthal, located in the village of Stolberg, West Germany.

In 1954 the company started a research program to find a low-cost method to manufacture antibiotics from peptides. In their research they were able to produce and patent a substance which they called "Thalidomide." They had no clue what this new drug could or could not do, but it was time to find some kind of use for the drug in order to make a profit.

Testing the new drug on mice and rats, the chemists at Chemie Grunenthal found that the drug did not have any antibiotic activity and none of the animals tested were found to have been harmed with side effects. The drug was then tested in extremely high doses on mice, rats, guinea pigs, rabbits, cats and dogs. The animals again did not die and no side effects were recorded. The drug was then declared "nontoxic" by the company.

Since the drug displayed a sedated effect on the test animals, the company leadership decided to market the drug as a "sleeping agent," which would be a high profit venture. In 1955, the company sent out its sales representatives who called on medical doctors in Germany and Switzerland and gave free samples of the drugs to the doctors, who in turn gave it to their patients. Chemie Grunenthal's original claim that the new drug would prevent epileptic seizures turned out not to be true. The patients given the free drug reported that it helped them to sleep at night.

Ten months after the drug was introduced to the market in Germany and Switzerland, an employee of Chemie Grunenthal had taken home a sample and given it to his wife, who at that time was pregnant. When she gave birth to her child, it was born without ears. It was not reported and discussed in medical circles at the time.

Since the German government regulated the field of medicine, the drug could not be sold in Germany until it had been further tested. On October 1, 1957, the drug had been approved by the government and it was released as a sedative under the name "Contergan." (The drug was sold in 46 other countries but under 37 different names; "Neurosedyn" in Sweden, "Distival" in England and "Kevadon" in the United States. It is important for the reader to know that once the German government approved the drug, it was sold over-the-counter as a sleeping agent, with no prescription needed.

In August 1958, Chemie Grunenthal sent out a mass mailing to all medical doctors in Germany telling them that Contergan was the best and safest sleeping drug for pregnant and nursing mothers. The British company, Distillers, quickly followed suit and marketed the drug as the choice drug for pregnant women with morning sickness and nausea. By 1961, Contergan was the leading sleeping pill sold in Germany, outselling all other brands by five to one. Chemie Grunenthal was making a handsome profit as the drug was also sold in Europe, Asia, Africa and in South America.

THE FIRST ALARM

In 1959, a German neurologist wrote to Chemie Grunenthal asking if anyone had reported symptoms of "peripheral neuritis" as a result of having taken Contergan. The company responded by lying that it had no such information. In reality the company had received 100 letters reporting severe neuropathy and some 1500 reports of other side effects all while the drug was breaking sales records. The company was instructing its sales people to deny any connection between Contergan and peripheral neuritis.

THE DRUG ENTERS THE UNITED STATES

On September 8, 1960, the Richardson-Merrel Company submitted an application to the U.S. Food and Drug Administration asking for approval to market Thalidomide in the United States under the name "Kevadon." Interestingly, the company had released the drug a year and a half earlier under so-called "trials," which also included pregnant women; 2.5 million tablets were distributed by 1,267 medical doctors to some 20,000 patients.

THE SECOND ALARM

In November 1961, reports from Germany and Australia linked thalidomide to a sharp increase in the number of infants being born with a variety of birth defects, including rarely seen and grotesque malformation known as phocomelia (literally seals' flippers where there is a markedly stunted growth of limbs).

By December 1961, German newspapers had printed the horror details, and for the first time it was widely reported that pregnant women who had taken Contergan were giving birth to deformed babies. Chemie Grunenthal withdrew the drug from the German market once this was disclosed and notified Richardson-Merrell that their action was taken due to the "sensational reporting in the media." Due to the many names used for the drug, it would take nine months before the sale of thalidomide was halted, the last nations to stop were Italy and Japan.

It is estimated that 40,000 people developed drug-induced peripheral neuritis and between 8,000 to 12,000 babies were born deformed. Some 5,000 of these babies survived beyond childhood. However, the true figures will never be known since Chemie Grunenthal and medical doctors were not necessarily truthful in their reports. The victims in the third world nations were never really tracked and recorded, and many parents killed their babies, since they believed that these monster babies were conceived by demons.

There were a number of lawsuits against Chemie Grunenthal and other pharmaceutical companies who had sold Thalidomide. In England a court ordered gag rule was in effect so that the legal activities could not be written in British newspapers for the next ten years (1962-1972). In a trial in Germany against Dr. Muckter, the director of the scientific laboratory of Chemie Grunenthal, it was disclosed that all of the company's records had been destroyed or disappeared in 1959.

DRAGGING THEIR FEET

By the end of 1961, the first legal filings were done at the County Court of Aachen. By 1968, the bill of indictment comprising 972 pages, based on half a million documents was introduced. On May 27, 1968, a criminal trial commenced against seven employees of Chemie Grunenthal. The trial dragged on for two years and seven months until December 18, 1970, when Chemie Grunenthal and the attorneys for the seven charged men reached an out of court settlement that Chemie Grunenthal would pay 100 million German Marks (about 250 million dollars) to a fund that would be used to compensate the deformed children.

On December 17, 1971, the German Federal Ministry of Health established the Institution to Help Handicapped Children (Hilfswerk Fuer Behinderte Kinder), which put the court agreement on a legal basis. Thus, the German government took over the compensation to the victims of thalidomide in Germany. Similar agreements were made in other nations where the drug had been sold, except for Italy. However, it took several more years before money was finally given to the parents of the deformed children.

DEFORMED BABIES

What happened to all the babies that were born missing one or two limbs, without ears, deformed eyes, malfunctioning hearts, genitals, kidneys, digestive tract and nervous system? As of 2003 there were 8,000 reported survivors, 3,000 in Germany, 1,000 in the rest of European nations and the remainder 4,000 living in Japan, Asia, and South America. It is not in the best interest of the World Government that incidents like this be remembered in history books since the pharmaceutical industry is the centerpiece in the arsenal of weapons of the World Government.

These deformed children are now in their late 40's but we seldom hear anything about this group of human beings. Some of them did get married. It was reported in the British Sunday Mirror of July 3, 1994, that six young men who were born deformed because of Thalidomide also had babies born with malformed limbs. Two of the babies had almost identical deformities to their fathers. The entire debacle has been hidden from current generations; once these deformed people start to die off, it will seem like this crime against humanity never happened according to historical records kept by educational institutions.

THALIDOMIDE IS STILL ON THE MARKET

In 1964, a man dying of leprosy in a French hospital was given a dose of Thalidomide by the doctor to ease his pain, and instead of dying, he was cured of leprosy. New research was started and it was found that the drug was successful against an assortment of ailments like immune system disorders, tuberculosis, multiple myeloma and a number of other diseases. The drug was approved for use in the United States in 1998 under a strict monitoring program.

Thalidomide still has side effects which have not changed; thus, it is a two edged sword which can help combat certain diseases but also create its own diseases in the treated person. Needless to say, the current owners of Chemie Grunenthal are still making money on this monster drug.

There are many designer drugs developed in different laboratories which are not known to the general public. The purpose of these drugs is to alter the behavior of human beings and also shorten the life span of people deemed as “workers.” Some of these drugs are used to dope athletes for better results and are getting harder to detect but the athlete is not informed of the terrible side effects like dying prematurely!

In Nazi Germany, the former Soviet Union (now Russia), China and other totalitarian states, the governments are using drugs in mental institutions to destroy people deemed dangerous to the regime. Healthy men and women in the Soviet Union were taken to mental hospitals and had their brains fried with designer drugs; when they were released, their mental capacity had been destroyed and they became “useless idiots,” who were mentally sick and unable to hold a conversation, much less a job.

I personally know of a man, who refused to serve in the Soviet Army and was taken to a mental hospital for treatment. He was a strong born-again Christian and filled with the Holy Spirit. After six long months the drugs were not able to destroy his mental faculties. He stood on chapter 16 of the Gospel of Mark and God protected him. He came to the United States in 1989 and our church helped him and his family to get established. He learned English and is now a successful business man.

The FBI and the CIA also have these designer drugs and use them on so-called “terrorists,” but in the future they will be used on American citizens who refuse to buckle to the One World Government. Unless you are a strong professing Christian who is walking in the supernatural, you will succumb and become mentally ill and be tossed out to live on the streets.

CHINESE FOOD CONTAMINATION

The people in the world learned about “melamine” in 2007, when an estimated 1,500 dogs and cats died in the United States after ingesting a Chinese made pet food that was laced with it. When melamine is added to a protein mixture like in dog food, it increases the protein percentage reading when the product is tested. Dog and cat food can be diluted with water and flour, but when the product was tested for its protein value, melamine would still register a high protein percentage. Thus, the food made in China could be sold cheaper than American brands since less meat was used and make a handsome profit. The fact that melamine is poisonous did not deter the Chinese CEO’s; money is the name of the game for them.

Pet owners in America did not take it lightly and China suddenly found its pet foods being boycotted. The Communist government in China does not care for the common people but they acted decisively when it came to loss of income. After a short and brutal investigation which included torture, they put the chief government inspector on trial, found him guilty of bribery and sentenced him to death. He was shot within hours of his conviction.

On a side note, China is the biggest exporter of donor organs, and since there are not enough criminals to execute from which to harvest organs, government judges are sending thousands upon thousands of Chinese men and women to their death in order to have an ample supply of donor organs for the wealthy in the United States, Canada, Western Europe and the rich oil nations in the Middle East.

The chief inspector’s different body parts were sold to a number of wealthy people, who were in need of a transplant. Other people involved in the scandal were given long prison terms. Once “justice had been served,” the Communist regime told the world that the “terrible criminals” were either dead or in prison and it would never happen again. So feel free to begin buying Chinese made pet food again.

CORRUPTION THAT WILL NOT DIE

We need to understand that the huge pharmaceutical corporations in the Western World are in partnership with their Chinese counterparts. Business in China is made in this way: A foreign company will be allowed to own up to 49% of a joint venture in China, but the Communists want to make sure that they are in control, not capitalists from the West. Since the people running the pharmaceutical corporations in the Western world are without any morals, they love to do business in China. Dirty products can be produced for a hefty profit and the Communist government will protect them from the government agencies in the United States and other nations.

Enter melamine one more time. Greedy corporate officers decided to make more money on baby food, so milk was diluted and melamine was added to make sure the baby formula would pass the protein inspection. The fact that children were going to die was of no interest to them.

On September 18, 2008, the Associated Press reported that 6,200 babies in China had become ill after being fed the melamine laced baby food. A number had died and scores of babies were taken to hospitals for kidney failure. This time the Chinese government acted much quicker to stop the problem before tainted baby food showed up in the United States. 5,000 inspectors were sent out to the different producers and found that 20% of the milk powder produced to make baby food contained melamine. Since the pet food contamination, seafood and toothpaste made in China have also been found with toxic elements.

The United States has not approved for baby food to be imported from China, but ethnic Chinese grocery outlets do carry them where there is a large Chinese population like in San Francisco.

The Sanlu Group Corporation is the Chinese corporation producing the contaminated milk powder. Tian Wenhua, the company's general manager has been fired and detained by police. In addition, four milk suppliers have been arrested. Sanlu is located in the Hebei province, and the mayor of the provincial capital and four other city officials have also been fired from their jobs. The management of Sanlu failed to report that its products had been contaminated with melamine for five months. The reason I am sharing this information about contaminated milk powder from China is to show you that this is just the tip of the iceberg. In the future, there will be more reports of contaminated foods, medication, and vaccines after thousands of people have become sick or died.

DRUG ABUSE IN SILICON VALLEY

Before we leave this subject, I want to share one more thing with you. It was in the Silicon Valley that the giants like Google, Yahoo, eBay, Amazon and PayPal were started in the 1990's. It was a gathering of the brightest and smartest people that caused the dot com corporations to spring up like mushrooms. And it was here that software engineers gathered to write and produce the tremendous explosion in computer technology.

According to a report in the San Jose Mercury News, there was a dark side to the bright people living and working in the Silicon Valley. They were doing what is called "brain doping."<sup>15</sup> Managers in the different corporations were expected to work 20 hours per day at times, and they demanded the same hours from their workers. Out of 1,400 persons responding to an informal survey, a quarter of them admitted to taking drugs for non-medical reasons to improve their concentration or memory.<sup>16</sup>

The medicines included Ritalin, a stimulant for treating attention-deficit hyperactivity disorder; Provigil for sleep disorders; and so called beta blockers for cardiac arrhythmia. One executive stated, "I use Provigil when we have a large amount of work that needs to be done. Sure beats caffeine. You can stay up pretty much as long as you want, then hit the sack and sleep like normal."<sup>17</sup> Provigil seems to be the performance drug of choice for the men and women working in the Silicon Valley.

Cephalon is the pharmaceutical company that is the producer of Provigil. The drug company claims that its drug is structurally distinct from amphetamines, but does produce the same effect on its users like "crank."

Cephalon warns that using Provigil can lead to addiction with side effects like headaches, nausea, nervousness, diarrhea, back pain, anxiety, dizziness, upset stomach and trouble sleeping.

CONCLUSION TO THIS SEGMENT

It is obvious that the human race has entered a new period which can be called "The Era of Pharmacia." It doesn't matter if a person lives a clean life and stays away from drug abuse, he will still be exposed to chemicals through food, water, medication and vaccination. It is impossible to live on the earth today and be free of pharmacia unless a person lived on an island that was totally isolated from the rest of the world. But chemical pollutions would reach the person through the air and water. There is only one way to escape the clutches of the drugs, and that is to walk with Jesus, standing on Mark, chapter 16, and avoiding as much contaminated food as possible.

There is no crisis in heaven, God is still on the throne, and what is happening on the earth now, was known to God before He began the creation. As Satan marches on with his plan, God is also marching on too. In the darkest of night, God can give tremendous victories for people who have faith to pray and believe. It is fitting to close this segment with the following verse which was given to the apostle John some 1,918 years ago:

"And the light of a candle shall shine no more at all in thee; and the voice of the bridegroom and of the bride shall be heard no more at all in thee: for thy merchants were the great men of the earth; for by thy sorceries were all nations deceived."
(Revelation 18:23)

The Greek word for sorceries is Pharmacia!

POSTSCRIPT

The following excerpt was reported by the Sacramento Bee on October 18, 2008:

"Trenton, New Jersey - Drug giant Pfizer Inc. has reached an $894 million deal to settle the bulk of the lawsuits over its withdrawn pain reliever Bextra, following the lead of rival Merck & Co., which is spending five times more to settle its Vioxx suits."

The Pfizer agreement also would end lawsuits over its popular Celebrex, the only one of the three still on the market.

The world's biggest drugmaker said Friday it has agreements in principle to end up to 92 percent of personal injury lawsuits brought by people claiming Bextra and Celebrex caused heart attacks, strokes or other harm.

The settlement includes roughly 7,000 personal injury cases, mainly plaintiffs who took Bextra, said plaintiff attorney Perry Weitz."

Psalm 23

(1) <A Psalm of David.> The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.

(2) He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

(3) He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

(4) Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

(5) Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

(6) Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

Testimony of JoAnne Christou

May 27, 2007

Good Morning! This is the day the Lord has made and I'm going to leave not like I came. And today, I just want to please the Lord with this testimony."

It's all about living in fantasy as a shy child and the fantasy became a built-in self defense mechanism to make me feel safe and make me feel good toward myself because of heavy family rejection; with heavy trauma all of my life until I became a Christian.

Because of living in fantasies, I became a very good story builder as my life unfolded. The story building was revealed to me about five years ago by the Holy Spirit. It was difficult to recognize at first and then I got the hang of it and overcame Satan. Since then, the Lord has been revealing one myth after the other in my life and always cleansing, cleansing, cleansing.

To please the Lord, I'm going to confess to the congregation, and I've already repented of these myths, but they are devilish and demonic stories put into my mind by Satan. It was easy for him as I was already a fantasy story builder. I've said all this so far to please the Lord.

I've been a Christian for about 15 years now, so about 13½ years ago, in that big church over on Highway 50, when I was only 1½ years old in God's kingdom, I didn't know how to test spirits, didn't know anything about testing spirits. The devil sent into the women's intercession group a young woman who sang fake prophecies over four of us. She sang five prophecies over me, one of which was: "The Lord would name me 'Mother of all Nations.'" I bought into that one big time. It fit the satanic spirits of self-importance and pride that were already there because of fantasy and story building.

I can remember playing under our old homestead house at the age of three and the imagination taking over in me. I loved babies even then, so the "Mother of all Nations" fit right in later on in life.

With this false prophesy, the devil was beginning to build his story to feed what was there from childhood, and about 2½ years later, I met Sotiris, not knowing we would marry in the future. He was in the food distribution business, and about this time, thinking it was Jesus, Satan told me I would be given a food product to feed babies and children worldwide. He just worked everything out so beautifully by having me think it was God telling me this. This product was to be high in protein, have a long shelf life and be low cost. In my mind, this fit right in with the “Mother of all Nations” lie. The devil knows how much we both love babies and little children.

I was then shown who the importer for the product would be. I was given the name of a man by Ron Svenhard’s secretary, and some time later, we went to this man’s church. On that day, he announced that he had just become an importer, and I went wild. That was confirmation from God or so I thought! Satan used Christians and real circumstances in making his lie believable. This man later gave up importing to write books for Jesus. I questioned this and scripture was used by the enemy to tell me that God would not violate a man’s free will and another importer would be chosen later. Because scripture had been given, I again bought into the satanic lie which kept me contaminated and totally deceived!

The next sequence to this testimony was George and Katherine Mwangi coming into our church. They are from Kenya, Africa and came to the United States to escape being burned to death by the rubber necklaces. This is where Christians were murdered by putting a rubber tire around their bodies and throwing gasoline or kerosene on them and setting them on fire. Just after they came into our church, Satan showed me that the product to be given to me was locusts. Again, the wrong voice said, “Ask the African sister about locusts.” The following Sunday, I asked Katherine about locusts, and she said that as a child, they barbecued them and that they tasted like chicken. Third world countries and orphanages came to my mind, to feed the babies and children. She also said one large locust is enough for one meal. So the story was becoming more believable all the time.

Many years passed with Sotiris and I going through the rock tumbler which brought us much closer to the Lord. Only God knows why His particular timing is chosen to reveal the untruths in our hearts and His timing is so perfect for our lives. I just thank you Jesus for all of this.

The ways of Satan are subtle and beguiling. Approximately four years ago, a woman from Guatemala, who had an evangelistic and prophetic ministry, singled out Sotiris and I after a church meeting in another church and spoke exactly the same prophecy over me of being “Mother of all Nations.” I went bananas! That was God! That had to be God! BUT IT WAS NOT GOD!

She spoke over my husband and me as being spiritual giants and said other words to feed our flesh with pride and self-importance. Before this happened, my husband was already fighting pride and self-importance from his life in Greece and I unknowingly had them already built into me.

This evangelist and prophetess from Guatemala will be told of this and will be taught testing of the spirits. I don’t think she tests spirits as in 1 John 4:1-3. She is just learning English and always welcomes new biblical information. I know the Holy Spirit will show her the truth so she will never again speak while being deceived but recognize the enemy. I’m praying the Holy Spirit will give that to her strongly.

The fantasy lie continued on and in 2006 I was shown who the new importer was to be or so I thought. Katherine Mwangi had been an importer in Kenya before coming to America, and according to the enemy, she was to be the new importer. Here went old hornhead again, using factual information to cause me to buy into the lie even further.

The Mwangi’s were going to Kenya on June 5th of this year where they have just finished building a new home. I was told by the enemy that if I went to Kenya with them, I would meet an older Christian gentleman in their church who would be the one to grow the locusts.

Meanwhile, not too long ago, the Lord had spoken a prophecy through Pastor John that our church has been set free from bondages holding us back. Unknowingly, I was one of those bondages. How many more of us are in bondage? Ask God to show you and help break you free just as Pastor John has been preaching. I just praise God that He's broken me free. It is truly wonderful and changes are happening; little things are happening all the time as I'm casting the demons out!

The sermons were really on fire to me after the prophecy was given to the congregation by Pastor John. He preached about C.T. Studd and how his family told him that he could no longer go to other countries to minister for the Lord. Studd knew God was calling him to go out again, so he left his family and went out and preached another 20 years. Like the word says, when husband and wife separate, don't divorce, come back together again. I believe Pastor John said his family went to him after five years.

At the altar call, I ran down to the front and was anointed. I said, "Yes, Lord, I'm going to Kenya." My thoughts were, "My Pastor just preached, 'you can break loose and when God tells you to do something for Him, DO IT!'" So, after the altar call, I ran to Pastor John and sister Aina at the door and very excitedly said, "Was that message for men and women?" As he shook my hand and looked me right in the eye, he said, "Yes, JoAnne." That was it! I was on my way to Africa, regardless of what my husband thought... and that was not Jesus! My saving grace was that the Holy Spirit moved on me to ask intercessors to pray for confirmation concerning going to Kenya in June. Now it was finally time for concrete action from God. And it wasn't God. Praise God, I was obedient in this.

In my heart, after 73 years of this story building or perhaps I should say, 13½ years, I was willing to hear an "aye" or a "nay" from the Father. Anyway, the first three intercessors I asked to pray didn't hear a word, not one word from the Lord, not an "aye" or "nay." The fourth one fasted and prayed and was given Acts 13:1-4. I was then told by the Holy Spirit to ask Pastor John and Sister Aina to fast and pray with me over this issue. They did and both reported to me later that this whole thing was not of God, because if God is building up our business, He wouldn't send us out until it is built up enough. And secondly, when we were sent to Greece, Pastor John felt a peace about sending us out, as in Acts 13:1-4. He knew it was the Holy Spirit. It was beautiful when we went to Greece, and it was of God. He didn't feel peace about us being sent to Africa and gave me 1 Kings 22:5, where Ahab, the king of Israel heard what he wanted to hear from the prophets, just as I had in the fantasy and story building.

I was devastated for about five minutes. Then the enemy put sadness, shame, embarrassment, defeat, guilt and a number of other satanic spirits on me emotionally, and all of a sudden with the Holy Spirit moving quickly upon me, I came up out of that slime pit by doing heavy duty warfare against the emotional turmoil. The other intercessors joined in and I was delivered of all those years of lies and fantasies, self-defense and deception.

Sister Aina and another intercessor received from the Lord one word, "Temptation," meaning the devil was tempting me. Going to Kenya was the enemy's plan to devastate my life in Jesus, and push doubt, unbelief, and wavering into my heart after spending all of that time and money, only to find out there was no gentleman and no locusts.

After leaving intercession that night, I began to question the Lord about the two prophesies that had been spoken over me from the past and He showed me that they were false. I asked Him to show me other things from my past and He has. Praise God! I'm thankful. My God raised up His standard against the enemy and saved me from the devastation, the lies, the story building, and the defeat of 13½ years; about 73 years, all told. Anyway, God has allowed me to use many gifts named in His Word. He's blessed me many times. He blessed me with Sotiris. He's melted and molded me, but I did not have His fullness, and now I can have His Fullness in all things. I'm thankful. No more contamination and no more deceit. The satanic spell has been broken! It's gone now and I'm free in Jesus! I'm now a new woman in Christ. He's renewing me all of the time.

I was prepared to receive an "aye" or "nay" from the Lord when they prayed, and when it was "nay," I gave it up in five minutes after confessing and repenting to Jesus Christ. I've been forgiven because of the blood of Jesus. 1 John 1:9 says, "If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness." I thank the Lord for all of the scripture He has given me. Pastor John just preached on this recently.

I've been restored just like King David. I feel so free and my husband sees the changes happening. He loves coming home from a day's work now more than he did before. In the past, he could feel something was not quite right, but couldn't put his finger on it. I was guilty! I'm moving on. Thank God I'm forgiven in Jesus' name!

This testimony is not given so anyone can gossip, criticize or judge these circumstances but so that my corner of the church of Jesus Christ will be cleansed from Satanic evil. I don't call it sin but evil. I know this testimony pleases my Father in Heaven. He gave me these scriptures:

"He hath not dealt with us after our sins; nor rewarded us according to our iniquities. For as the heaven is high above the earth, so great is his mercy toward them that fear him. As far as the east is from the west, so far hath he removed our transgressions from us." (Psalms 103:10-12)

Thank you Lord!

"And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God." (Romans 12:2)

"...and reprove one that hath understanding, and he will understand knowledge." (Proverbs 19:25b)

Thank you for that Lord.

"A reproof entereth more into a wise man than an hundred stripes into a fool." (Proverbs 17:10)

"My son, despise not the chastening of the LORD; neither be weary of his correction: For whom the LORD loveth he correcteth; even as a father the son in whom he delighteth." (Proverbs 3:11-12)

I love that!

"Now no chastening for the present seemeth to be joyous, but grievous: nevertheless afterward it yieldeth the peaceable fruit of righteousness unto them which are exercised thereby." (Hebrews 12:11)

I am getting exercised! I love it! I'm thankful. I'm thankful because I never knew, and it wasted so much time thinking: "Why isn't this happening?"

When are you going to do this God? When are you going to do that?" Well, it wasn't God.

Pastor John preached about King David making a decision not to live in the past but accepting God's will and moving on to the here and now.

"Make me to hear joy and gladness; that the bones which thou hast broken may rejoice. Hide thy face from my sins, and blot out all mine iniquities. Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me. Cast me not away from thy presence; and take not thy holy spirit from me. Restore unto me the joy of thy salvation; and uphold me with thy free spirit." (Psalms 51:8-12)

The Lord has already renewed a right spirit within me and given me a true joy. My husband sees this and hasn't spoken a derogatory statement. He likes me better now. He liked me back then but now he likes me better and I do too. I just praise the Lord for His perfect timing in my life and thank Him for His love and the truth that has been shown to me. I thank you Lord! I love you Lord! I just can't stop thanking you and praising you for doing this!

I thought I would be embarrassed to death but I'm not. I'm glad. Thank you Jesus. Hallelujah! You are an awesome God!

JoAnne Christou is on the music worship team at Resurrection Life of Jesus Church and her husband, Sotiris, is an Elder. They came to RLJC in 1991 and are an integral part of this ministry, visiting the sick and witnessing Jesus wherever the Lord leads them.

No Deliverance from the Time of Wrath

By Sheriff Jim R. Schwiesow, Ret.

MSNBC HEADLINE

Ike Nears Texas: 'Now Is The Time
For Prayers'

Only the godless media of a godless nation of godless people devoid of any knowledge of the changeless Eternal God could deliver such a conventionally self-serving statement, a statement typical of a nation having a form of godliness, but denying the power of the almighty, all knowing, and all-seeing God of the universe.

The Apostle Paul wrote of just such a time as exists in this nation today, a time when the people would be lovers of themselves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, without natural affection, trucebreakers, false accusers, uncontrollable, fierce, despisers of those that are good, traitors, heady, high-minded, and lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God. In view of the fact that fifty million innocent babies have been murdered intentionally with premeditation and in the most heinous ways I would add murderers to that list, which of course only highlights Paul's offering of "being without natural affection".

There does not exist a more apt description than this of the nature of the United States today, it is a nation that consists, collectively, of a people led away from God by divers lusts, it is an ever-learning acculturation of those who are never able to come to a knowledge of the truth. It is in fact a nation of people who resist the truth, an irreverent fellowship of men of corrupt mind and reprobate faith. We are a people who turn to a righteous God only when it is selfishly expedient or when it suits our egotistical purposes to do so. Such disdain and disregard for the God who gives us breath and who's very Spirit and power animates us and sustains the beating of our hearts will certainly have its consequences and we are seeing such in this country at an ever accelerating pace.

The United States has crossed a great divide and is now on a dizzying slide downward through an ever-quickenning succession of events, both of the cosmos and of manmade induction, which are stepping this nation toward a now inevitable time of a complete and climatic destruction. Prayers from an apostate people for deliverance from catastrophic events current and future will not be heard, in the parlance of the Bible it is a time for sackcloth and ashes.

AN UNPOPULAR MESSAGE

Those who believe that there is hope for a secular deliverance of this country from an increasingly inescapable terminal destiny at the hand of Almighty God or that the government or its leaders possess the answers to the nearly total social and spiritual unraveling of this commonwealth are barking up a wrong tree. Nowhere in the population of this nation or in the government or the institutions thereof exists a savior. Our Savior has come to this earth and gone and will return again, it is He that we should look to for deliverance. It is He who is the true Savior, and if the readers of this message have not accepted Him as such and taken advantage of His work upon the cross for the expiation of their sins past, present and future, they most surely would do well to do so now. The fact is that any preacher, of honeyed words, who extols an innate goodness of man and salvation by any means other than through Jesus Christ, is a false messenger and is in service to the powers of darkness. God's word says that none are righteous - no not one - and that the righteousness of man is as filthy rags in His sight.

My recent articles have been increasingly apocalyptic; I reject any thought that there is any hope that this country will be turned around by mortal men or by our terribly corrupt and fallible politicians. These, and those who extol their virtues, will do nothing other than hasten our fall. This has not been a popular message with some and several letters in response to my recent columns have been vitriolic and hate filled. I understand this, as the writers of these messages love the world either above God or in place of God.

I am grateful to those who carry my articles on their websites and pray for God's blessings upon them. But, I know that there will come a time, and very soon, when my words will be blocked and censored. The prophets of old who were sent to deliver hard messages unto God's people and to their kings and religious leaders were censored and imprisoned, and those who speak the truth today can expect the same circumstances as even now we see an unrighteous abridgement - by a fascistic government - of individual rights and liberties.

"When I say unto the wicked, Thou shall surely die; and thou gives him not warning, nor speaks to warn the wicked from his wicked way, to save his life; the same wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at your hand." (Ezekiel 3:18)

Clearly those in the ministry today who tickle the ears with new age doctrines - such as the goodness of man, a lack of evil, that man is divine and therefore can create his own spiritual destiny, Satan is an imaginary being and that there are many roads to salvation - have not read the above scripture. And if they have and have rejected it, or any other of God's truths, they will stand and give an account for every lost soul that was in their charge.

A TUMULTUOUS END

The affects of hurricane IKE were tremendous. The cost of property damage has been estimated at one trillion dollars. Tens of thousands of homes have been destroyed and hundreds of thousands people have been made homeless. Millions are without power and industries of all kinds have been either disrupted or destroyed and shut down altogether. Local economies have been all but wiped out and the U.S. economy already a tottering shambles held together by chewing gum and duct tape is being pushed to the edge. The dwindling number of middle-income taxpayers cannot continually bail out one area after another from the costs of major catastrophic events that now occur at a rate of nearly one upon another, and it is with a certainty that the major corporations that are virtually completely exempt from taxation are not going to contribute to any recovery as greed is the name of their game. The soon coming burden that the government will place upon the dwindling few will be crushing. And yet this is but the initial phase of the coming tribulation upon this nation. The apocalyptic natural events will continue, but that is not the whole of the story.

The economy of this nation is, for all intents, shot; fooled away by seeming half-wits. The government and the elites have striven mightily with lies, manipulation of the markets, and bailouts of failed financial institutions to wire together a wrecked economic infrastructure that has been made a disaster by their own hand. The stricken federally chartered housing finance companies Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac - progeny's of our totalitarian regime - have been absorbed by their maker and shaper and placed upon the backs of the people. A wrecked car in such a dismal shape as our economy would be declared a total loss and scrapped. I think that this is exactly the plan of those who pursue a one-world order. They endeavor powerfully and vigorously to scrap the dollar and negate our sovereignty in order that this nation might be coalesced with Canada and Mexico in a North American Union and then integrated into a new world order.

RIOTS, CIVIL STRIFE AND WAR

Who can know the evil that lurks in the minds of men? God knows and soon so shall we if we don't already know.

A virtual Trojan horse of monumental proportions has been rolled across our borders. Such an event could not have been accomplished without the ignorance, apathy and complaisance of the people and the treasonous endeavors of the politicians who feed at trough of the corporate pirates who control the government and society with the monies that they have amassed by deceit, trickery and larceny beyond imagination. To be subject to these is the fate of a people who have no knowledge of Almighty God. This horse carried the seeds of an invasive and pernicious evil that will render this nation completely impotent and cause it to lie prostrate before its enemies.

Out of the horse poured predators, malcontents, criminals of all stripe, disease carriers, free loaders, mercenaries and subversives. Such have molested, raped and killed our children, disrupted and corrupted every facet of an amalgamate and orderly society, bankrupted our local governments and institutions, piled the people high with debt to sustain the invaders with perks beyond anything available to ordinary citizens, caused us to build an ever increasing number of prisons to incarcerate alien invaders who kill, violate and maim American citizens, and opened the country to the predations of clandestine enemy agents who have infiltrated via open borders and lax immigration policies and who are supported by enemy citadels that have been openly set up under the noses of the government and its security agencies in the guise of mosques and embassies..

The floods, the hurricanes, the tornadoes, the fires, the earthquakes and the manmade disasters presage the time of the end. Soon - very soon - our cities will be host to civil strife such has never been experienced in the history of this nation. A pestilence of violence will roll across the land, cities will burn and the carnage will be great. Our panicked fascist government will add to that carnage. The violence will exacerbate an already degraded situation and disease and famine will spread exponentially in the wake of the violence. There will be widespread panic brought about by the rolling and continuous collapse of services and social order. No person will be isolated from the effects of the collapse of order that will affect those both within and without the cities.

"The sword is without, and the pestilence and the famine within: he that is in the field shall die with the sword; and he that is in the city, famine and pestilence shall devour him" (Ezekiel 7:15)

When the nation has been sufficiently weakened by all of the foregoing an utter annihilation will fall upon the land and it will be made desolate by nuclear fire.

"In all your dwelling places the cities shall be laid waste, and the high places shall be desolate; that your altars may be laid waste and made desolate, and your idols may be broken and cease, and your images may be cut down, and your works may be abolished. And the slain shall fall in the midst of you, and ye shall know that I am the LORD." (Ezekiel 6:6-7)

Error Correction

September 19, 2008

Dear Charles,

We read in Genesis 2:16-17, God commanding Adam, "saying, Of every tree of the garden thou mayest freely eat: But of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, thou shalt not eat of it..." We note that God did not say, "thou shall not eat it or touch it." However, in Genesis 3:1-3, we read where Satan has asked the woman to verify what God has commanded regarding the fruit of this particular tree. And it is here that the woman does what so many of us do when offering excuses for our sins – we embellish upon the Word of God and add to what He has commanded us not to do. The woman replies to Satan, "But of the fruit of the tree which is in the midst of the garden, God hath said, Ye shall not eat of it, neither shall ye touch it, lest ye die," We know however, that God did not say anything about not touching the fruit. Eve added those words to God's commandment. Why? I believe it was in an attempt to make the commandment harsher, and therefore unreasonable. In this way, she was preparing herself to disobey the commandment and justifying in her own mind why it was okay to do that which God had commanded her not to do. I reflected upon this lesson when I read this month's "The Flaming Sword" and your misstatement regarding the "rule" that was broken by Adam and Eve. According to Scripture, the rule, i.e. commandment, was simply not to eat the fruit. I know your desire to be correct in all things concerning Scripture, so I point this out with that purpose in mind.

Jesus said, "For my yoke is easy, and my burden light." We therefore need not make Jesus' commandments harsher or burdensome to us, and then offer this "fact" as the reason why we were unable to obey them. They are not there to weigh us down, but to lift us up from the bondage of sin.

May God continue to bless you and may you grow each day closer to His likeness.

In Christ,

THE WORLD ECONOMIC CRISIS OF 2008

By John S. Torell

Most of the people living in the world today were born after the great depression of 1929 that lasted throughout the 1930's. We have been used to an expanding economy since the end of World War II in 1945. During these 63 years, there have been a few hiccups in the world economy, but it has always straightened out. However, something has changed in 2008. First, the housing market burst and prices tumbled. This was followed by hundreds of thousands of mortgage failures. Then there was the sudden rise in oil prices, which spiked at $147 per barrel and translated to $4.50 per gallon for gasoline. As all of us took a hit in the wallet when we gassed up our vehicles; we moaned and groaned with the realization that we did not have so much money to spend as we used to.

Fannie May and Freddie Mack, the biggest mortgage holders in the United States were collapsing, and before the American people knew what was going on, the U.S. government took over these private institutions and infused billions of dollars into them to keep the housing market from completely collapsing.

This was followed by bank after bank collapsing until President Bush spoke about infusing Wall Street with 700 billion dollars so that the entire financial market didn't disintegrate.

Senators and congressmen were told to line up and vote for this "one time bailout" program or the American dollar would cease to exist and there would be no more money in the banks and no more business loans, etc. It took three weeks to corral enough congressmen to vote for this plan, and once President Bush had signed it into law, the stock market in New York crashed and lost more than 35% of its value in just one week. People lost their investments, pension funds were wiped out, and those people who thought that they had saved money for their golden years, found out that much of their savings did not exist any more.

As the economy began to slow down, the demand for oil decreased and at the end of October, oil is now trading in the range of $70 per barrel; a price drop of more than 50%.

We are told that the economy is in a worldwide recession and people are going to lose their jobs as the economy continues to slow down. Automakers in all nations are laying off workers, car dealers are going out of business, stores are cutting back on employees. We are now experiencing a domino effect that will not be fixed in a short amount of time, if it can be fixed at all using the conventional methods of the past. As people are laid off, they will have less money to buy goods, which means that even more people will lose jobs with no end in sight.

Does anyone know what is going on? Yes, first of all, Jesus told us in the Bible about the coming Antichrist and his world system of financial control. Secondly, secret documents that were leaked from the meetings held more than 110 years ago with a copy placed in British Museum, London in 1905 tells us in detail what was planned to happen, what did happen, what is happening now and what will happen in the future.

THE FINANCIAL PLAN BY THE WORLD GOVERNMENT

The meeting that laid the groundwork for the future World Government was held in Basel, Switzerland in 1898 and is known as the World Zionist Congress. Since this will be an extremely brief article, I will quote from Article 6 from the working agenda of this congress. The members were all Jewish and constantly refer to Gentiles as "goyim."

"...We shall soon begin to establish huge monopolies, reservoirs of colossal riches, upon which even large fortunes of the goyim will depend to such an extent that they will go to the bottom together with the credit of the States on the day after the political smash..."

"...In every possible way we must develop the significance of our Super-Government by representing it as the Protector and Benefactor of all those who voluntarily submit to us..."

HISTORICAL FACTS

By 1898, most factories and businesses existed as local or regional entities. The large corporations of the time were the British East Indian Company, Rhodes enterprises in Africa and De Beers Mining Company in the southern part of Africa. In the United States the railroad tycoons had just peaked in power, followed by the steel, textile, paper, and lumber industries.

As of 2008, we are in a global economy with the global corporations having a monopoly on everything from food, oil, communications, banking, real estate, shipping, transportation, etc. The huge monopolies envisioned in 1898 are now a reality in the world in which we live.

Back to the document of 1898:

“...The aristocracy of the goyim as a political force, is dead – we need not to take it into account; but as landed proprietors they can still be harmful to us from the fact that they are self-sufficing in the recourses upon which they live. It is essential therefore for us at whatever cost to deprive them of their land. This object will be best attained by increasing the burdens upon landed property – in loading lands with debt. These measures will check land-holding and keep it in a state of humble and unconditional submission.”

“The aristocrats of the goyim, being hereditarily incapable of contenting themselves with little, will rapidly burn up and fizzle out...”

The term aristocracy refers to royal families, nobility (princes, dukes, counts, etc) and also the rich upper classes in a nation.

HISTORICAL FACTS

The reader must keep this in mind that this document was drafted in 1898. The kings of Sweden, Denmark, Holland, and England at the time had been relegated to figure heads without any political power. The royal house of France had been smashed in the French revolution in 1792 and the main royal houses left in 1898 were in Austria, Germany and Russia. By the end of World War I (1919) they had also ceased to exist. The vast land holdings of the royal families left in the world have been reduced to very small holdings.

The majority of the American elite families of the 20th century have been relegated to obscure roles, with most of them having lost all their power and fortunes (The Whitney family, the Perkins family, the Stimson family, the Phelps family, the Taft family, the Bundy family, the Wadsworth family, the Lord family, the Gilman family, the Payne Family, the Harriman family, the Pillsbury family, the Sloane family, the Astor family, and many more.) Of these old American upper class families, only the Rockefeller family is still going strong and richer than ever. The men in this family are still part of the highest operations of the World Government and are members of the Council of Foreign Relations, the Trilateral Commission and the Bilderberger group.

Any person can do some personal research and find that the majority of wealth in 2008 is held by Jewish families in different parts of the world who dominate banking, media (television, radio, newspaper, magazine, books, movie studios, etc.), the support businesses for the entertainment industry, manufacturing, etc.

Back to the document:

“...At the same time we must intensively patronize trade and industry, but, first and foremost, speculation, the part played by which is to provide a counterpoise to industry: the absence of speculative industry will multiply capital in private hands and will serve to restore agriculture by freeing the land from indebtedness to the land banks.

“What we want is that industry should drain off from the land both labour and capital and by means of speculation transfer into our hands all the money of the world, and thereby throw all the goyim into the ranks of the proletariat [working class, blue collar workers]. Then the goyim will bow down before us, if for no other reason but to get the right to exist...”

HISTORICAL FACTS

Back in the 1800's most factories were owned by individuals or families. As I have brought out previously, credit was hard to come by in the United States after the Civil War because the economy was contracted. This meant that printed money was called in by the government and the paper notes were burned. This condition would continue until 1913, when the Jewish international bankers were able to ramrod the Federal Reserve System, a privately owned banking system that runs the United States.

In order to obtain cash to expand factories and businesses, stock markets were set up in the capitols of different nations and private owners of the different businesses were enticed to give up their private ownership and issue stocks to provide them with much needed cash. They lost control over their enterprises as their factories and businesses were transferred into speculation (gambling), since the operators of the different stock markets could manipulate the value of public stocks up or down. Most stock markets were either owned or operated by Jews. The policies of these publicly held companies shifted from quality to profit in order to keep the stock value high and please the stockholders.

As the manufacturing industry was developed in Europe and in the United States in the late 1890's and early 1900's, the population majority shifted from the countryside to the cities where they were employed as laborers in the vast network of new factories and one of the goals of the World government was met. During the stock market crash in 1929 and the following depression, a large number of farmers lost their land and were forced to move to the cities. Another World Government goal was partially met.

In the 1960's, the banks in the United States enticed any remaining farmers to borrow heavily and use their farms as collateral in order to purchase the latest in farm equipment.<sup>1</sup> The loans were tied to the prime rate (4% at that time) that is set by the Federal Reserve Board (FRB). In 1980, the FRB raised the prime rate to 20.35%, which meant the farmers were facing an interest rate of around 25%. The majority of them could not make their payments and the banks foreclosed their farms and even more farmers lost their land.

Back to the document:

“...To complete the ruin of the industry of the goyim we shall bring to the assistance of speculation the luxury which we have developed among the goyim, that greedy demand for luxury which is swallowing up everything.

“We shall raise the rate of wages, which however, will not bring any advantage to the workers, for at the same time we shall produce a rise in prices of the first necessities of life, alleging that it arises from the decline of agriculture and cattle-breeding; we shall further undermine artfully and deeply sources of production, by accustoming the workers to anarchy and to drunkenness and side by side therewith taking all measure to extirpate [exterminate] from the fact of the earth all the educated forces of the goyim.”

HISTORICAL FACTS

It is in the United States and Western Europe that the standard of living for the working class arose tremendously after World War II. The American working class became accustomed to having at least two automobiles per household; no other nation on earth has seen such a high ownership of homes by workers. American households in 2008 have several televisions, cell phones, and computers. They also have a fax machine, washer and dryer, refrigerator, microwave, etc. The kitchens are full of electric appliances for baking and cooking. Children have bicycles and toys of all kinds and each year more toys are purchased.

Americans are used to eating out in restaurants; the women have their hair and nails done on a regular schedule. People go on cruise ships and travel with recreational vehicles like motorcycles, snowmobiles and jet skis. Sports and recreation is a huge industry in the United States, not to mention the billions of dollars Americans spend on their pets. There can be no doubt that greed for luxury is driving not only the working class but also the rich and famous.

Most people born after 1950 don't know about poverty except for those who have lost their jobs or are living in a depressed area like the Rust Belt.

The people who drafted the policies of the World Government in 1898 would be astonished if they could come back from the dead and see how their plans succeeded.

Alcohol has always been a curse, especially for the working class, where it destroys homes and the men and women who use it from being able to hold down jobs. The Christian community in the United States realized this, and during the early parts of the 1900's, there was a successful political movement to ban alcohol in the United States. It was spearheaded by evangelist Billy Sunday and eventually became the Eighteenth Amendment to the Constitution in 1919 until it was repealed in 1933. The repeal drive was organized by the Democratic Party and bankrolled by the American Jewish bankers. As of 2008, alcohol still is a scourge in the United States and around the world.

Let's not forget the introduction of drugs in the 1960's by the CIA, which infiltrated the hippie movement and introduced the use and production of LSD. From that time until now, the use of drugs has put a curse on the youth of America and its use of amphetamines and other designer drugs have put millions of young people in early graves and cost the American economy billion of dollars in lost production.

Furthermore, the American factories that were built up in the early part of the 1900's and churned out a superior production that made it possible for the American soldiers to smash the Nazis and the Japanese empire but do not exist any more. The factory managers began shutting down factories in the United States after 1960 and moved them to Mexico, then to China, South Korea, Taiwan, India, Bangladesh and a number of third world nations. The stockholders as the owners had no say in the matter. America has been reduced to a nation of service jobs and the only viable industries left are airplane manufacturing, computer and software production and agriculture. The American automobile industry is dying, and at this time, it is not known if GM, Ford and Chrysler will survive. Let's now forget that the United States is the biggest exporter of military hardware in the world.

The people attending the congress in 1898 have succeeded beyond their wildest expectations!

Back to the document:

“...In order that the true meaning of things may not strike the goyim before the proper time we shall mask it under an alleged ardent desire to serve the working classes and the great principles of political economy about which our economic theories are carrying on an energetic propaganda...”

HISTORICAL FACTS

In Russia it was marketed under the name “Communism,” in Germany it became known as the “Nazi Party,” in Italy it was introduced as “Fascism.” In the Scandinavian countries they called themselves “Social Democrats,” in the United States it is known as the Democratic Party and in England they are known as the Labor Party.

Each demagogue of these different organizations uses the same rallying cries of “down with the rich capitalists” and “let the workers arise.” Labor unions were formed in the West; but under Communism, Nazism and Fascism. the labor leaders were shot.

Slogans during the last 100 years have been the same with the call for higher wages, job security, ample retirement funds, education for their children, along with welfare and general health insurance. Is it a coincidence that the leaders of these different organizations have mostly been Jewish? Senator Barrack Hussein Obama, the latest pied piper, is a loyal front man for these Jewish people.

The Zionist World congress members of 1898 and their descendants take great pride in their achievements and now aim to put the most liberal man of the Senate into the White House as the President of the United States of America. If you listen to the promises of Obama and compare them with the information I have just given you, it can only lead to one question: How could the American people be so dumb to give away their land and become peons and beggars?

WHAT CAN CHRISTIANS DO?

The bad news is that the Antichrist system is closer than you think. Unless you are a born again Christian who believes that the Bible is the Word of God, and exists in the English speaking world as the King James Bible, you will be more or less clueless. Let’s briefly lay out the future as we look at it as found in the Bible:

- ❑ Abraham’s descendants gave us Jesus, the Messiah and the Saviour of mankind. (Isaiah 9:6-7)
- ❑ Abraham’s descendants are also going to give the world the Antichrist who will be Jewish, charismatic and a homosexual. (Daniel 11: 31-39)
- ❑ Jesus told us that when the man of sin comes on the scene, the world will be in chaos and in an economic meltdown. (Luke 21:25-26)

❑ In order to take dominion over the entire world, there must be an organization that is working behind the scenes to set the stage where they can present the world population with a global solution. The most basic need of man is food. If there is no food, it won’t matter how much material wealth a person has. Thus, the organization must first create a crisis and then propose a solution. If people knew in advance that an organization was behind the chaos, they would never accept the offered solution. Thus, it has to be done with deception. (2 Thessalonians 2:1-12)

❑ It is in the Book of Revelation that we are given a clear picture of a society under total control. The World Government has worked toward this goal for the last 500 years and we are now seeing the culmination of these carefully laid plans. The final details can be found in chapter 13 of the Book of Revelation.

❑ Food will be the controlling factor in the Antichrist kingdom; without the Mark of the Beast there won’t be any buying or selling taking place. In the Flaming Sword newsletters of September and October 2008, I have written two articles dealing with food, vaccine and drugs. When you read these two articles, plus the one you are reading now, there is enough information for you to understand that the Antichrist system is just about to close the trap door on the human population. We have walked into a trap and there is no way out. When the door closes, we have moved into the time that the Bible calls “The Great Tribulation.” (Matthew 24:21-24)

You and I have no control over the money, jobs and homes we live in. We are in a system of credit and when the system comes crashing down, there is nothing we can do in the flesh.

NO PLACE TO HIDE EXCEPT IN JESUS

There is no safe place to which we can flee on the earth. There are no safe investments, even in gold, silver or diamonds. Try to withdraw $5,000 in cash from your own savings account and you will be told to fill out a special form before they will give you the money. Sometimes you even have to order the cash withdrawal in advance because most banks don’t carry that much cash.

Even if we hoard food, fuel and other supplies and try to flee into the wilderness, we would still run out of supplies eventually. We are in the end times and the question is when will the Jewish World Government pull the plug on our economy? The good news is that they can only do it when God gives them permission. (2 Thessalonians 2:6-7)

During the month of October, the stock markets around the world are going down faster and faster, even the commodity market is crashing and gold and platinum are losing their value, as a determined unseen hand is depressing prices.

Have you ever asked or wondered who is buying all the stock when people are panicking and selling off their stock at a huge loss? The unseen hand of the World Government is eagerly buying up the stocks as they lose value, and in this way the factories, businesses, etc., are being transferred from the goyim to the Jewish World Government people.

CHRISTIANS MUST INVEST IN THE KINGDOM OF GOD!

This is not the time to be depressed; this is the time to rise up in the name of Jesus and do the work of God as long as we can. Jesus has warned us about the day that is coming.

"I must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day: the night cometh, when no man can work." (John 9:4)

The night comes in two ways, first when a person comes to the end of his life, and he is taken off this planet. The other is when the Antichrist comes in full power.

Let me leave you with this mental picture: All of us living in the United States have seen on our television screens when a huge hurricane is moving toward our nation. On the satellite pictures we can see these huge storms covering a vast portion of the ocean. We have seen people living in the area where the hurricane is predicted to hit and before it comes, the waters begin to churn, the wind is blowing and it is obvious that the storm is getting closer. So it is with the Antichrist system. We can now see the waves and feel the wind.

SALVATION IS A MUST

If you are not a Christian, you are in terrible trouble! First of all, there will be no spiritual protection for you and you will be absorbed by the Antichrist system, and later when Jesus comes back to set up his kingdom on this earth, you will end up in hell and later in the Lake of Fire. (Revelation 20:10-15)

If you are not born again and you want to be saved right now, I am including the plan of Salvation as found in the Bible. Please take the time to read it; your decision will affect you forever!

Acknowledge you are a sinner who needs to be saved and that you cannot save yourself.

"For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God." (Romans 3:23)

"But God commends his love toward us, in that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us." (Romans 5:8)

"For the wages of sin is death: but the gift of God is eternal life, through Jesus Christ our Lord." (Romans 6:23)

"For by grace are you saved, through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not by works lest any man should boast. For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus to good works, which God has before ordained that we should walk in them." (Ephesians 2:8-10)

Believe that God loves you and desires to forgive you, believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God and that He is the only way to heaven.

"For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved." (John 3:16-17)

"Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me." (John 14:6)

"For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved." (Romans 10:13)

"If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land." (2 Chronicles 7:14)

"And be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you." (Ephesians 4:32)

Confess and repent of your sins to God, tell Him that you are sorry and want to be forgiven.

"If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness." (1 John 1:9)

"That if you shall confess with your mouth the Lord Jesus, and shall believe in your heart that God has raised him from the dead, you shall be saved. For with the heart man believes unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation. For the scripture says, Whosoever believes on him shall not be ashamed. For there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek: for the same Lord over all is rich unto all that call upon him. For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved." (Romans 10:9-13)

If you read this and realize that you are hopelessly lost, that there is nothing you can do to earn your way into heaven, all that remains to do is to ask God to save you. If you ask, God will answer!

Dear Lord Jesus, forgive me of my sins, cleanse my heart of all sin and wickedness, come in to my life and be my Lord and Savior. I believe you shed your precious blood on the cross; you died and rose again on the third day for me. Save me Jesus, I know I can't save myself. Thank you for giving me eternal life and a place in heaven with you. Amen.

If you just went through the ABC's of salvation and asked Jesus to save you, you are now a Christian! You have become born again and are a new creation in God's eyes! Contact us if you need further help.

Remember this, what Jesus has done in the past, He will do in the future. If you call out to Him, He will answer you. What He will do for one person, He will do for another. God is not a respecter of persons and He doesn't show favoritism. He will help anybody who calls out to Him.

"Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever." (Hebrews 13:8)

If you are a born again believer in Christ and cave in and take the Mark of the Beast, you will lose your salvation and be damned forever to burn in the Lake of Fire. This is the only time a believer in Christ can lose their salvation. For years I have been warning people, regardless how bad it gets, how hungry you are, how much pain you are in, DO NOT take the Mark of the Beast! (Revelation 14:9-12)

CAN THE COMING OF THE ANTICHRIST BE POSTPONED FOR A SEASON?

I believe so. If God's people are willing to repent, and turn from their lukewarm condition and start to witness, pray, fast, invest money in God's genuine work and not to greedy television evangelists, we just might get some more time to work the works of God.

If enough people get the understanding of what is happening to our economy and demand investigations and criminal indictments of those who have manipulated the financial markets, we might gain some additional time that way.

If you are one of these Christians who believes in a pre-tribulation rapture, you will be deeply disappointed and your faith will be shaken to the core by what you see and hear. I believe that Christians will have to face part of the tribulation period and should prepare ourselves for it. We can still prosper until the trap door closes and it is entirely possible to get some people out of the trap, saved and filled with the Holy Spirit.

You need to educate yourself; first, in the Bible and then what is happening in the world. I will close with this passage from the Bible:

"But Jesus beheld them, and said unto them, With men this is impossible; but with God all things are possible.

Then answered Peter and said unto him, Behold, we have forsaken all, and followed thee; what shall we have therefore?

And Jesus said unto them, Verily I say unto you, That ye which have followed me, in the regeneration when the Son of man shall sit in the throne of his glory, ye also shall sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

And every one that hath forsaken houses, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my name's sake, shall receive an hundredfold, and shall inherit everlasting life.

But many that are first shall be last; and the last shall be first." (Matthew 19:26-30)

We want to share with you a compilation of articles by John S. Torell beginning in the 1990's and up through 2004 that were published in The Dove magazine about how the World Government has been developed during the last 110 years. This booklet was put together by Gert Timmerman is entitled, SHOWDOWN IN JERUSALEM. It can be purchased or read online for free. See the August 2008 newsletter.

Satan's Infiltration of Christian Churches

John S. Torell

Every move of God on earth, with one exception, has been infiltrated by the Devil. The only move which the Devil could not defeat was the mission of Jesus to be born, live, minister, die for our sins and be resurrected on the third day. Whether you realize it or not, mankind is locked in a legal battle between God and Satan. Every human being on earth is dragged into this whether they like it or not. Most Christians have read 1 Peter 5:8 many times but never understood or reflected that the words are literally true. The Devil really is walking around like a roaring lion seeking whom he may devour.

It is still possible to have personal victory even if denominations, local churches and mission organizations are being defeated. The apostle Paul was one such person who lived in a time of political turbulence and financial instability. He was opposed by the leaders of Judaism, by pagan religious leaders and was also hurt by so-called Christians who repeatedly stabbed him in the back. In his letter to the church in Ephesus, Paul laid down the roadmap to victory that is still true some 1,950 years after it was written.

TRUSTING & RESTING IN GOD

John S. Torell

The Bible doesn't give a lot of information about the prophet Elijah. Up until the time when God activated him, Elijah had been an unknown man in the Northern Kingdom. In this series, join Pastor Torell and see how Elijah learned the following:

- To be totally dependent upon the Lord to provide him with food and water on a daily basis.
- God was greater than a man-made idol and it didn't matter that he was outnumbered 850 to 1 by the prophets of Baal.
- God did not reject him because of fear; the Lord still had a plan for him and knew that Elijah just needed to be rebuilt in his faith.

When the time came for Elijah to leave this earth; his place as a spiritual giant had forever been sealed as he was able to completely trust and rest upon God! As you listen to this series, your faith will be built up as you witness the many difficulties Elijah had to face, ones that are similar to what we also face today!

SUNDAY MORNING WORSHIP . . . . 10:30 AM (Nursery & Sunday School available for children)

If there is a need in your life, Jesus is the answer! We desire to pray and minister to you and then watch God work! If you are seeking answers, have a need, or if you are in the midst of a trial or circumstance of any kind that seems to have no answers, we want to assure you that Jesus is the answer. Won't you let us pray for you? God will touch you. You have nothing to lose and everything to gain!

Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light. (Matthew 11:28-30)
